EASTBAY MEN BACK ECONOMY

Lawmakers Look For Lively Session and Pledge Their Support to Governor Richardson's Plan to Cut Taxes

Improvement of Oakland Harbor and Ample Support for the University Promised; Plans Outlined

A definite program, containing measures of vital importance to the entire Eastbay region, is being taken to Sacramento by the four Senators, the seven assemblymen and the one assembly woman constituting Alameda county's delegation to the 45th Legislature, which is to convene at Sacramento on January 8.

The program provides especially for the following policies:

- 1—Support for Governor Friend W. Richardson in the carrying out of his economy program, provided this be done without crippling humanitarian and educational activities.
- 2—Development of the Oakland and Alameda waterfronts and port facilities, and a State Appropriation for same.
- 3—Revision of the State Motor Vehicle Act, providing stricter rules for the issuance of permits. Also revision of certain probate laws.
- 4—Support and encouragement of the University of California in all its extensions and activities.

The Senators and members of the Assembly expect a lively session when Governor Richardson undertakes to put his program of retrenchment and economy into operation.

The lawmakers from Alameda county have furnished the TRIBUNE with the following statements:

A. H. BREED, Senator 15th District, President Pro Tem of Senate since 1917: At the next session of the Legislature there will undoubtedly be introduced the usual number of bills seeking to regulate everything and everybody. About sixty per cent of all the bills will not pass through both houses and not more than sixty per cent of the bills passed by both houses will receive executive approval.

Financial bills at the coming session will receive the greatest attention because the incoming governor made his campaign upon the platform of economy. He stated during the campaign that he would make radical reductions, without, however, impairing the functions of government. I am sure that a great majority of the legislature will be ready to assist him, providing economies can be made without crippling the humanitarian and educational activities.

Every officer and every board regards its particular work as the most important so will fight hard against reductions. The new budget amendment voted by the people last November gives the governor tremendous power over expenditures. The governor has always had the veto power but now is given by the new amendment power to reduce an appropriation. The matter of re-appportioning the state into congressional districts, senatorial districts and assembly districts will be before us again and also provoke a lively discussion. The public are not greatly interested in re-apportionment.

EDGAR S. HURLEY, 15th Senatorial District: Plans for the development of the Oakland waterfront will have my best attention during the session of the legislature. I shall advocate the creation of a harbor district to be directly under the control of the Board of Public Works, whose actions shall be approved by the city council.

Legislative enactment, authorizing the creation of a harbor district, will be required. It shall be necessary to then submit to the electorate of the city of Oakland a charter amendment providing for the organizing of the harbor district. In case the charter amendment carried, it would then be necessary to rush the matter to the legislature for approval.

I may also submit a bill providing for a differential not to exceed 5% favoring contractors of California over contractors of other states. There have been several instances in California in which eastern contractors have edged out contractors out of a contract, because of the difference of a very small percentage.

FRANK M. CARR, 15th Senatorial District: I look for this to Dinner Party Holdup Victims

THUG BAGS GEMS AT DINNER PARTY

Gunman Holds Up Hosts and Guests At Social Fete; Gets $3000 Loot.

Police search was under way today for the young bandit who appeared last night during a dinner party at the home of W. H. Metcalf, western manager for the Fuller Brush Company, at 629 Oakland avenue, and, after robbing Metcalf and his guests of money and jewels valued at more than $3000, escaped after a pistol duel with J. H. Campbell, one of the guests.

The robber's loot included a diamond ring, valued at $1000, which he tore from the hand of Mrs. Metcalf, who is a well known social leader and president of the Delphian Club of the Eastbay.

As the gunman was leaving the house after he had taken the jewels from the women, Campbell rushed downstairs and secured his pistol which was in his overcoat pocket and fired five times at the robber.

The holdup man replied with one shot, which whizzed past Campbell's head.

WOMEN "COVERED" AND JEWELRY SEIZED.

The robber held up the three men of the party in the billiard room on the third floor, locked them in the room and proceeded to the first floor, where the wives were gathered. Covering them with a revolver, he snatched gems from their arms and fingers. Among the jewelry taken by the holdup man were two diamond rings, valued at $500 each, a wrist watch worth $125, a gold cigarette case, and another diamond ring listed at $400.

As the robber was leaving, a towel which he had used to conceal his face, slipped down, and women of the party told police detectives that they got a good look at him and would be able to identify him.

Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, Roy Burge, 201 Orange street, manager of the Oakland department of the brush concern, and his wife, J. H. Campbell, real estate operator and a deputy sheriff, of 525 Oakland avenue, and Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. J. H. Campbell.

The bandit first entered the billiard room, where Metcalf, Campbell and Burge were playing a match.

CAMPBELL SMOKES ONE OF VICTIM'S CIGARETTES.

He lit the three men up against the wall and took a check on the Central National bank for $39, $25 in cash and a diamond ring set with emeralds from Metcalf. Metcalf saved a valuable diamond stick pin by snatching it from

LABOR BACKS DAUGHERTY'S PROSECUTION

Samuel Gompers, Impeachment Witness, Brands Appointment of W. J. Burns As Public Scandal; Denial

Wrangling Between Members of Committee and Those Who Oppose the Attorney-General Feature of Probe

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Senator Johnson, Republican, California, was the first witness called today in Attorney-General Daugherty's defense against impeachment proceedings. He testified as to the character and ability of W. J. Burns, chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice, whose appointment is made the basis for one of the fourteen specifications against the attorney-general.

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Frank Johnson, Republican, California, was the first witness called today in Attorney-General Daugherty's defense against impeachment proceedings. He testified as to the character and ability of W. J. Burns, chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice, whose appointment is made the basis for one of the fourteen specifications against the attorney-general.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE, LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Arlinghous wrangling between members of the Judiciary committee of the House and those who are seeking the impeachment of Attorney-General Harry M. Daugherty again marked the progress of the proceedings when everything got under way today.

Representative of organized labor, represented by Jackson Ralston, chief counsel for the American Federation of Labor, resumed its attack on the Attorney General.

Exclusion of some evidence by the Judiciary Committee led to a threat by Ralston to obtain an order "from the full House of Representatives" for the production of the evidence he wished to present.

RALSTON CLASHES WITH VOLSTED.

Ralston frequently clashed with Representative Volsted, Republican of Minnesota, chairman of the committee, over his ruling out of certain evidence which alleged "indecent conduct" on the part of William J. Burns, whom Daugherty made chief of the Bureau of Investigation.

Ralston said he would show that Burns was "guilty of almost continuous indecent conduct from 1905 to the date of his appointment."

"I want to say for Mr. Burns, he has denied it all and I have enough confidence in Burns to believe him," said Representative Graham, Republican, of Pennsylvania.

"Before we are through you will change your opinion," Ralston retorted.

STYLES APPOINTMENT "PUBLIC SCANDAL."

Samuel Gompers was the first witness. He branded Burns' appointment as a "public scandal" and told the committee he had so informed Attorney General Daugherty.

Gompers said he had published certain articles in a labor paper concerning Burns "to expose a man who had been guilty of a great wrong."

Former Attorney General George W.ickersham testified he had also exposed Burns' appointment. Wickersham said he "have written" a letter for A. Bruce Bielaski for the post, but he "really did not have a candidate" instead of Burns.

LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

Four Firemen Are Injured at Berkeley Blaze

Gas Menaces Lives of Many As Night-Clad Tenants Flee to Street.

BERKELEY, Dec. 13.—Four firemen were injured, while two score or more persons were forced to flee to the street in their night clothes as a result of a fire which threatened to destroy the Barker Block, Shattuck avenue and Dwight way, at 2 o'clock this morning.

Occupants of the Ramona Apartments, which comprise the second and third stories of the building, were routed from their beds by firemen. Several had to remain on the streets in the rain for almost two hours. Dangers from escaping gas and the possibility of new explosions forced Fire Chief G. Sydney Rose to take precautions to prevent fatalities or injuries. Damage to the building and contents is estimated at $3500.

The injured firemen are: Captain Dan Begley, No. 2 Chemical Co., overcome by gas.

Hoseman Fred Klutz, No. 3 Engine, overcome by gas.

Lieutenant William Seidel, No. 5 Hose Co., burns of hands and face.

Hoseman Ray Hutton, No. 2 Engine Co., burns.

FLAMES THREATEN ENTIRE STRUCTURE.

Starting in the gas meter room in the basement of the building, the blaze threatened to destroy the entire structure. Before the fire was controlled firemen were forced to enter a gas-filled basement to turn off the cocks of 35 meters, from all of which deadly fumes were escaping. With fire spitting from the meters, it was necessary for the men to don gas masks before entering the basement.

Mrs. Arthur Brown, recently from Salt Lake, who with her two babies, ages 8 months and 2 years, occupied a rear apartment, was the first to discover the fire. Awakened by smoke which filled her bedroom, Mrs. Brown rushed to a window and saw flames shooting from the rear of the structure. She seized her babies and fleeing with them down the hallways of the apartment house, awakened other sleepers, who summoned the fire department. Most of the exits from apartments were made in orderly fashion, firemen assuring the occupants of the house that while there was no immediate danger, that it was safest to desert the building.

W. J. Heineman, salesman, aroused by the noise, sought to take his wife and two children down the street, but found the hallway filled with smoke. He lowered his wife six feet to the roof of an adjoining building, and then dropped into her arms their children, Ella, 18 months, and Linnelle, 8 years. Blankets were then given the family and umbrellas provided, and Heineman joined his wife and children, the group remaining on the roof until danger was past.

FIRE CHIEF PREVENTS JUMPING BY STUDENT.

To Chief G. Sydney Rose, who directed the fire fighting, Irving Jackson, student at the University of California, probably owes his life. Chief Rose looked up from the rear of the building to see Jackson ready to jump from a third-story window.

"Help, murder, police!" called the student as he prepared to jump. Chief Rose called to the student, and dashed up the stairs and through the smoke-filled hallways and dragged him from the window sill.

Mrs. Bernice Lester, secretary of the Berkeley health department, and Miss Lulu Case, city bacteriologist, were roused from sleep by firemen and fled to the street.

An investigation as to the cause of the blaze is being made by the fire department. According to A. M. Aggeler, lessee of the apartment building, he notified the Pacific Gas and Electric company on two occasions within the last three days that gas was escaping in the to the complaint, Aggeler declared. Heroic work on the part of the fire department saved the structure from total destruction. Because of large quantities of escaping gas firemen risked their lives in stem the flow. Captain Dan Begley led a detail of men into the meter room, and was carried from the place unconscious. Others who succeeded in extinguishing the flow of gas were, besides Hoseman Fred Klutz, who was also overcome, Lieutenant Edward Stutz, Hoseman Robert Noble and Captain J. Eichelberger.

Shantung Exodus Will End Tomorrow

TOKYO, Dec. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Japan, in the process of relinquishing Kiaochow leasehold to China, expects to complete its withdrawal tomorrow. The Japanese cabinet, resenting charges from Chinese sources that Japanese troops were encouraging Chinese bandits at Tsin-tao, has decided not to remain in control at that port until December 20, as China insists.

The terms which Japan agreed to supply the Chinese guards reached Tsin-tao yesterday. As soon as the Chinese guards have been armed, Japan will begin to withdraw its garrison.

FRANCE TO FORCE DEBT COLLECTION

Poincare, Backed By Cabinet, Declares For Independent Action to Compel Germans to Meet Indemnity Dues

Decision Reached After Failure of London Conference; Move Will Begin When the Payment in January Fails

PARIS, Dec. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—The French cabinet this morning approved the attitude taken on the reparations question by Premier Poincare at the recent London conference of Premiers. It also expressed agreement with him regarding the declarations to be made in the chamber of deputies on Friday.

Premier Poincare, it is forecast, will ask the Chamber for a free hand in the reparations negotiations with the allies and for like freedom regarding the seizure of such pledges as are permitted under the treaty of Versailles.

PARIS, Dec. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Premier Poincare, at the resumption of the parliamentary debate on the French foreign policy, will announce that the government retains the right to use a free hand in seizing security for the German debt, but he will not specify what this security will be.

The premier made this clear to interviewers, saying that he would speak either spontaneously or in reply to interpellations on "the fresh postponement of the occupation of the Ruhr," of which Leon Daudet and others have given notice.

"I never said I thought of occupying the Ruhr, or taking such security," the premier told his questioners. "I do not know exactly what we would choose. If we did we should be very careful not to cry it from the housetops."

"This, however, is certain: Whatever action we decide on will not involve the calling up of a single man. What is no less certain is that the time for threats without action has passed. We have fully resolved to act, even alone, and even if before January 15 the reparations commission pronounces in favor of a fresh moratorium for Germany."

"In any case we cannot take any step before January 15. That is why it is wrong to speak of postponement. We postponed nothing and the fact that we are adjourning continuation of our discussions to the beginning of next month involves no loss of time."

The atmosphere for the parliamentary debates now appears less feverish and the situation is viewed with greater complacency by the press which, like the Petit Parisien, more or less supports the government, pointing out that the premier did not come back from London empty handed. Attention is also called to the fact that France obtained from her allies complete assurances which, while not as much as the less momentous, are none the less more important; notably Britain's new attitude towards the inter-allied debts, which could hardly have been hoped for after her refusal even to consider the question six months ago.

The newspapers also point out that Great Britain and Italy are now willing to take customs, mines and forests as securities for the German reparations.

There is an air of forced hope in some of the newspaper comments in which it is suggested that France may yet induce the allies to approve the seizure of the Ruhr and other guarantees at the resumption of the interallied conference here on January 2.

France's grim determination to lay her hands on something tangible is still the dominant note in the newspapers and political discussions.

ENGLAND MAY GET REPARATIONS MEET.

By DAVID M. CHURCH, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Great Britain may not participate in the next conference of allied premiers in Paris, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

The British treasury department is now drawing up a new reparations plan which will be submitted informally to France. If the French reject it, Premier Bonar Law is likely to reply that further conferences are useless and each nation must go its own way in the future. Most of the British cabinet were said to believe that the German proposals, while not entirely satisfactory, would have been suitable as the basis of further negotiation. In order not to risk collapse of allied unity, Premier Bonar Law finally consented to the persuasions of the Belgians and Italians to put off further negotiations until a future date.

Turk Defiant; Break Near At Lausanne

Curzon Warns Parley Will End Unless Aid Is Given Armenia.

By HENRY WOOD, United Press Staff Correspondent.

LAUSANNE, Dec. 13.—Marquis Curzon, on behalf of the allies, today notified the Turks that the Near Eastern conference here will be abandoned unless the Kemalists recede from their opposition to allied demands for the protection of Christian minorities in Turkish territory.

Marquis Curzon said the Turks would be wholly to blame if the conference breaks up on the minorities question. The Turks must also decide quickly, the English foreign secretary said, whether they would join the League of Nations or refuse its assistance in the Near Eastern settlement.

In threatening the abandoning of the conference, Curzon asserted that he did so with the full agreement of the other inviting powers, France and Italy.

Ambassador Child had previously declared on behalf of America that the Christians in the Near East must be protected as one of the "vital interests" of the United States.

It is understood that the conference will be suspended immediately if the Turks do not change their attitude.

TURKS DEFIANT ON ARMENIAN QUESTION.

LAUSANNE, Dec. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Turkey refused at today's session of the Near East conference to assign any special part of Turkey as a national home for the Armenians. Tamek Pasha declared this would mean a new attempt to dismember Turkey.

He was irreconcilable on other points concerning the treatment of minorities in Turkey. Besides declaring Turkey would not set aside an inch of Turkish soil for an Armenian national home, he said she would not accept the regulation of rights of minorities by an international commission in Constantinople or elsewhere.

Lord Curzon warned Ismet that there would be no sympathy anywhere in the world for Turkey if the conference broke down on the question of the treatment of minorities.

After a long and unsatisfactory discussion the entire question of minorities was referred to a subcommittee.

Ambassador Child, in his address on the minorities question, said that the representatives of the United States believed that the ends to be sought were "prevention, rather than mere relief, and guarantees of safety for minorities, rather than mere spasmatic separate action."

"The American representatives," said Ambassador Child, "stand on a high ground from which we can see the right and duty of every nation to claim no particular right to be heard upon the subjects of refugees, the protection of populations and the finding of homes for those who are dislodged; instead of doing so, we assert that other nations, and particularly those represented at this table, have an equal interest and equal duty."

"Because it was upon her territory that the misfortune of war fell, Turkey may have an interest in these humanitarian institutions greater than that of any of us."

"It is unthinkable that the aspirations of Turkey for independence and progress should not rely in part upon a generous policy of contribution to the safety and relief from suffering of mankind are one of the principal concerns of governments."

"The comfort, safety and settlement of hundreds of thousands of human beings, most of them non-belligerents, many of them women and children, many dislodged from their homes by the disturbances in the Near East, are a matter which has for the people of the world a far greater interest than the question of the rights of Turkey."

"I do not say that the Turkish delegation and the National Assembly will fail to act in accordance with that tolerance and justice and concession with which the United States and the whole world expects and may rightfully require, but I do urge on behalf of the people of the United States that this conference never leave Lausanne without providing some means for permanent joint labors to find a refuge for the unprotected hordes and create if possible a safe territorial refuge for special populations if it be determined that they require separation from other nationalities, religious or racial."

"Above all, this conference should secure by agreement and by measures of humanitarian administration strong guarantees that safety shall attend the continuance in their present situation of the populations which are vexed by fears."

The representatives of the United States believe that the ends to be sought are prevention, rather than mere relief and guarantees of safety for minorities, rather than mere spasmatic separate action.

WAR, NAVY DEPARTMENT UNION URGED

Head of Commission to Plan Reorganization Recommends Consolidation Under National Defense Title

Annual Naval Bill Reported to House Asks President to Reopen Parley; Would Include Smaller Vessels

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Consolidation of the war and navy departments in a department of national defense designed to function under a cabinet member with assistants in charge of the army and navy respectively, has been definitely recommended to President Harding by Walter F. Brown, head of the commission appointed to prepare a plan of Governmental reorganization.

The president is giving serious consideration to this and other recommendations submitted by Brown, and may lay them before Congress within a week or two, accompanied by a special message expressing the opinion of the administration on each of the charges suggested.

WOULD BROADEN SCOPE OF NAVAL LIMITATION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—A request that President Harding seek to broaden the scope of the naval limitation agreement so as to include a limitation on construction of smaller types of war vessels and on military and naval aircraft, is included in the annual naval bill as reported today by the House appropriations committee.

Under the bill as brought into the House the President would be asked to open negotiations with Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan for an agreement which would limit future building of all surface and submarine types of warcraft having a tonnage of 10,000 or less and on all classes of army and navy aircraft.

An enlisted personnel during the fiscal year beginning July 1 of $6,000, the same as at present, is provided for in the naval budget, carrying a total of $29,806,538 or approximately half a million dollars less than last year, reported to the House today.

$55,000,000 ASKED FOR COMPLETING WARSHIPS.

For completion of 36 warships, permissible under the arms conference treaty, the appropriations committee proposed to make available during the coming fiscal year a total of $55,000,000 or $14,000,000 more than recommended in the budget, to be made by direct appropriation of $20,000,000 and $35,000,000, indirect, out of cash to the credit of the naval supply account and small stores funds.

The bill carries an appropriation of $1,500,000 for further improvement of the Mare Island, Cal., navy project, including dykes and dredges and $320,000 for completion of the San Diego naval training station to which will be added $250,000 for the station in San Francisco Bay.

The sum of $250,000 is provided for the Great Lakes training station.

An expenditure of $693,000 is recommended for Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, for improving and increasing the facilities at the naval station, submarine base and ammunition depot.

SMALLER WAR CRAFT ACTIVITY PREDICTED.

In its report the committee pointed out that the arms conference did not limit the number or types of smaller war vessels, and added that information had reached congress "that already large programs are planned of vessels up to the maximum size permitted under the agreement and that new craft have begun to put in an appearance."

"In other words," the report continued, "competition is on again in the single direction to which the unratified agreement does not extend, and if it is allowed to go unchecked the purse strings again must be relaxed and this government like all others will be constrained to launch upon a new program to the extent necessary to keep us at least abreast of any of the other powers."

Bandits Raid Poker Game in San Jose

SAN JOSE, Dec. 13.—Three masked men, riding a poker game running in the rear of a cigar store on Bassett street, across from the Southern Pacific depot, shortly after midnight last night and escaped with upward of $1000 in money and jewelry. Germany in Serfdom Says Congressman

By W. H. ATKINS, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—America can expect no early payment of foreign war debts while Germany, the key to the situation, is held in a state of "serfdom" by unreasonable demands of the French and other allies," declared Representative Theodore E. Burton, chairman of the American Debt Commission, in a speech to-day before the Washington Association of Credit Men.

Burton recently returned from a European tour. He painted a dark picture of Europe's financial and political chaos and asserted that the Russian and Turkish situations are menacing.

Burton, decrying pleas for debt cancellation, said in the adjustment of these obligations the United States should pursue a "liberal" policy to help many of the debtors get on their feet again.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 13.—Analysis of the transportation difficulties that have faced the fruit and vegetable growers of California and the Pacific coast this year and in the past, and suggestions for bringing about improvement of conditions, featured the opening day of the fifty-fifth annual convention of the Fruit Growers and Farmers of California.

The convention is being attended by delegates from Montana, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Arizona and other western states.

Establishment of a committee to look after car troubles and placing of a branch of the car service division of the American Railway Association at some point in coast, were among the suggestions.

Ritter attacks on the eastern railroads because of their alleged partiality and promises not carried out, together with charges that their terminals were in a demoralized condition, were made by several speakers, several of whom advocated the use of the Panama canal, declaring time and money wasted in the use of the water route to the east. Discrimination during times of emergency also was charged to the eastern roads. Few charges were made against the western railroads serving California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—Four army airplanes left Crissey Field here today to aid in the search for Colonel Francis C. Marshall and Lieut. C. F. Webber along the Mexican border. The four machines will work with the seven others which left San Francisco yesterday.

BOY, 11, KILLS SELF.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Dec. 13.—George Thompson, 11 years of age, of Cardston, near here, shot and killed himself Monday, according to officials, who said that they had found no motive for his deed.

PRIORITY RULES RAPED.

J. B. Campbell, member of the interstate commerce commission, listened with interest to criticism of the priority system used by the commission last summer and fall. The criticism was made by George H. Hecke, director of the California department of agriculture.

Questions regarding the possibility of a recurrence of the shortage of 1922 were answered by railroad representatives, who said that a similar combination of disconcerting circumstances was highly improbable next year but in following seasons.

Strikes of coal miners and railroad men combined with bumper crops throughout the United States were responsible, transportation experts declared.

Despite these difficulties, western railroads operated to greater advantage to shippers than ever before, according to distribution managers. From western points shipments were handled with remarkable speed, it was stated, until reaching larger eastern centers, where the congestion was such as to tie up cars for weeks before they could be moved.

FRUIT ROYS ON TREES.

A plea for the northwest was entered by Frank R. Spinning, superintendent of transportation utilities, Wash. 200,000 acres of the richest soil in the country were waiting to be reclaimed in Washington, Oregon and Idaho, he said, but no effort was being made to reclaim them because the spirit of the people had been broken by transportation troubles.

"What use is it for us to sow and reap when we are unable to move our crops after harvesting them?" Spinning asked. "Thousands of boxes of apples are rotting on the trees at the present time because we lack the cars to ship them."

Assignment of railroads and refrigerator car companies were going all in their power to alleviate conditions and provide for similar situations in the future was given by representatives of Pacific coast conditions, among them G. A. McCormick, vice-president of the Southern Pacific; G. W. Goin, assistant general freight agent of the Santa Fe; Wilmer Seig, manager of the California Fruit Distributors; Sam Fulton, of the Santa Fe refrigerator, and C. H. Serist, general manager of the Pacific Fruit Express company.

MAN BOUND OVER.

James E. Howard, charged with attempt to murder, today was bound over to the superior court by Police Judge Mortimer Smith. He is alleged to have entered the offices of Doctors H. R. Ludwig and William Bishop in the Pacific building. His bail was fixed at $2500.

SHIP SUBSIDY IS TOPIC.

"Will the Ship Subsidy Bill Give Us a Merchant Marine?" will be the subject of an address by Guy W. Wolf of the California Development Board to members of the Oakland Rotary club at their luncheon tomorrow at the Hotel Oakland.

for the observance of each day. Arthur Caldwell is chairman, Wednesday, the 17th, "Bank Day," William Cavalier, Thursday, as "Budget Day," R. H. Mouser, Friday, as "Life Insurance Day," F. F. Porter, Saturday, "Own Your Own Home Day," Hugh L. Hagan, Sunday, January 17, "Wise Spending Day," Dan Read, Tuesday, as "Wise Spending Day."

The committee reviewed the work of last year. Tentative plans were submitted by Dan Read on the observance of "Make a Will Day" and William Cavalier on "Budget Day." Mr. Moyer emphasized the importance of completing the organization of the sub-committee. The National Thrift week is a national movement. The purpose is to stimulate the individual to think straight and act wisely in regard to personal money matters, in the realm of earning, spending,

HUNT FOR ELKS' TEETH FOR PINS MENACES HERDS
NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Shooting elk for two teeth which retail at $5 a tooth is threatening to exterminate the elk herds of the Pacific Northwest, Congressmen today told delegates to the National Game Conference today. He urged the Benevolent Order of Elks to help check the practice of "bootlegging" elk's teeth by discouraging purchase of teeth by members.

He said that within the last quarter century the elk in the Pacific Northwest had decreased from 15,000 head to 7000.

Cattle Theft Suspects Are Held to Answer
SALINAS, Dec. 13.—Albert Stone, Nick Radcliffe and Phil Radcliffe were held to answer before the superior court yesterday on a charge of grand larceny growing out of the theft of 59 head of cattle from the Peach Tree ranch of the Miller & Lux company in Stanislaus county about two months ago.

Justice of the Peace David Wallace, who presided at the preliminary hearing of the trio fixed the bail in each case at $4000.

According to testimony given in court today by Phil Radcliffe and corroborated by his brother, the three defendants were engaged in re-branding the stolen cattle when J. H. Boyd, a ranch hand, came on the scene. They warned Boyd, threats of death, that he should be silent about what he had witnessed, Boyd agreed, but the trio became suspicious of him later and selected Stone to kill Boyd. Stone returned about three days later and told his associates he killed Boyd, but it developed, witnesses testified, "he lost his nerve" after he escorted Boyd into Santa Barbara county.

Constable Robert Camp is awaiting a preliminary hearing on a charge of larceny growing out of the theft of cattle from the same ranch.

Russians Pay High For German Engines
(By International News Service.)
LONDON, Dec. 13.—Russia is paying very high for her German-made locomotives in the opinion of Curtis Franklin, of the Yale club, New York, former American relief administration official at Petrograd. The payment is made not in cash, but in scrap iron from old battleships. The price is forty times the weight in scrap for the new steel.

CURTAIN CALLS
By WOOD SOANES.
WHEREVER he is, William Shakespeare, who in life enjoyed a joke as well as the next fellow, must be getting a lot of fun out of the situation on Broadway at the expense of the dramatists of today.

Here we are in the day of the ultra-modern in playwrighting with manuscripts galore adorning the desks of Broadway producers and gradually acquiring a nice coating of dust, while the writings of the long deceased dramatist are holding their position on the electric sign-board.

Until the past year the offerings of Shakespeare were considered as defunct as the author himself. Only stars who had achieved stardom in their own name elected to produce Shakespearean plays and they did not meet with wild acclaim from the theatergoers. And then came Arthur Hopkins, an enterprising young New York theater manager.

TWENTY SEASONS AGO TODAY
"In Missouri" is being presented at the Alhambra theater this week. The cast includes Ernest Hastings as the sheriff, and Frank Bacon, Clifford Dempsey, Charles Francis Bryant, Albert Morrison, Marie Howe, Emily Radburn and Agnes Ranken.

Arthur Hopkins decided to present "Richard the Third" with John Barrymore, just graduated from the ranks of light comedy a couple of seasons ago, and had not Barrymore suffered a breakdown the show might have set a new record for attendance. At any rate it was an unqualified success.

Then, this year, Hopkins presented Barrymore in "Hamlet." Last week's receipts were in excess of $20,000, which is something in advance of the box office takings for any other reigning Broadway hit. Immediately "Hamlet" was launched, Hopkins announced Ethel Barrymore for "Romeo and Juliet."

At this point in the story things began to pop on Broadway. Astute managers dashed down to the libraries to secure copies of the works of Shakespeare and less astute ones began to cast about for some of the more recent plays. Announcements of forthcoming productions came both fast and furious.

Now on Christmas Day Jane Cowell will open in Pittsburgh under the Selwyn banner in Juliet under the name Miss Barrymore. Makes her New York debut. Shortly after both women will appear in the play in New York. Twenty-five years ago Ada Rehan and Julia Marlowe were both doing Juliet in New York simultaneously.

All of which would indicate that the O'Neills and Shaws and Hopwoods will soon be acted only at special performances and on the stages of high school and college auditoriums, if the law of averages holds good.

PEAT CASE CITED.
A plan similar to the council plan was used recently when a group of men was gathered to consider the question of the use of peat as a soil improver or fertilizer. As a result of all the information gathered and discussed from various angles, the department decided to publish a statement to the effect that peat has a very low fertilizing value, contrary to the claims of those wishing to sell it for fertilizer.

It was said, however, that peat is bought by commercial fertilizer producers to use as a body or filler for mixture with manufactured fertilizer and as such, good peat brought a good price.

The council plan will be applied to discussion of various other commodities and is expected to be of recommendations for use of farmers and others interested.

DID WASTE IN U. S.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The Commodity Council Plan is the name given to a new method of handling certain of the big agricultural problems by the United States department of agriculture. In the past different phases of crop situations had been handled separately by various bureaus and officers. Under the new plan, which has resulted in success, the various persons interested in the certain problem gather in a small council where each presents views and where a definite inclusive policy may be decided upon.

Councils already have been called to discuss the cotton and potato crops and recommendations have been made for action that would be beneficial in view of present conditions. Specialists in the culture of the crops, in soils, diseases, pests, grading and marketing contributed to the final recommendations.

POTATO WASTE AVOIDED.
As a result of the potato council much waste and loss in growing that crop is expected to be done away with following the approved recommendations. The per capita consumption of potatoes in this country is usually about 12 bushels, it was said, but this year enough potatoes were raised to supply each person with four bushels. Because of this situation, which was discouraging to farmers, the department, through the council, advised farmers carefully to grade their crops and ship only the best. It was suggested to the farmers that if all the crop, including culls, were shipped, food would rot or spoil in markets or in transit, markets would be glutted and the price forced down to a ruinous level. Such marketing would result in much waste all along the line from field to market. It was also declared that poorer potatoes and culls could be kept on the farm for storing for future markets, feeding to livestock, and, in certain localities, for selling to starch and flour mills.

Discarding of culls of culls and diseased tubers was another step important to the industry recommended, in order to protect future crops from disease.

IF THEY WANT IT, THEY WILL COME AND GET IT
Oakland is again living up to its reputation as a discriminating purchaser of theatrical entertainment. Those who were familiar with things here contended vehemently that the city would buy it if it wanted the entertainment but could not be induced to buy it if it did not.

The critical observers would then point with pride as proof of their contention to the lack of patronage accorded the Orpheum theater. Why the Orpheum has not been packed to the doors in recent seasons as it used to be in days gone by, can best be answered by the heads of the circuit, but there can be no disputing the fact that Oakland wanted change in the class of entertainment.

Kitty Doner with Sister Rose and Brother Ted are back home again. After successes in England they are appearing in vaudeville at the Palace in New York.

Pay Bainter's play, variously advertised as "Painted Lady" and "Lady Cristillinda," did not get into New York on schedule after all. It was decided by William Harris, the producer, and Monckton Hoffe, the author, to polish the play a little more before attempting Broadway.

And then, too, something has happened to "Mike Angelo," the Leo Carrillo play. That did not get into New York. The Mexico offices made some explanation about Carrillo having to throw up the part for the moment in order to make a picture of the piece. That explanation, however, is rather tippy.

ADVERTISING IS BEST METHOD TO INCREASE SALES

INCREASE PROFITS

Paul Findley Cites Prune Growers to Show Result of Campaign Work.

It is better merchandising policy to increase sales by means of advertising campaigns than to raise prices. Paul Findley, San Francisco advertising expert, told the members of the Oakland Ad Club at their weekly luncheon yesterday at the Hotel Oakland.

Findley cited the case of the prune growers of California, who formerly were forced to sell their product at 7 cents a pound, with 45,000 pounds of the dried fruit rotted every year. A national advertising campaign was undertaken for the purpose of increasing sales. Now 200,000 pounds of prunes are sold in this country each year and the price incidentally has climbed to 15 and 45 cents a pound because of the increased demand.

"Advertising is one of the first essentials in the retail business," Findley told the Ad Club members, "but without well-planned merchandising methods it is useless."

WHIST SET FOR FRIDAY
A turkey whist tournament will be held next Friday evening at Macchietti hall, Eleventh and Clay streets under the auspices of the East Coast Companies club of Oakland Circle No. 2, Companions of the Forest of America, with Mrs. Dora Davis, "Mother of the Club" in charge, assisted by club members.

QUIT TOBACCO

So easy to drop Cigarette,
Cigar, or Chewing habit

No-To-Bac has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. Whenever you have a longing for a smoke or a cigarette, just put a No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead. All desire stops. Shortly the habit is completely broken and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy and simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question—Advertisement.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly soothes the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.—Advertisement.

Simple Way to Take Off Fat

There can be nothing simpler than taking a convenient little tablet four times a day until your weight is reduced to normal. That's all—just purchase a case of Marquis Prescription Tablets from your druggist for one dollar, the same price the world over. Follow directions—no starvation dieting, or strenuous exercise. Eat substantial food to get fat as you like and keep on losing weight, and the best part of Marquis Prescription Tablets is that they are harmless. That is your absolute safeguard. Purchase them from your druggist or send direct to Marquis Co., 5122 Broadway, N. Y. C. 18.—Advertisement.

Rheumatism Can Be Treated at Home

No change of climate is necessary in treating rheumatism with Mrs. Sumners' popular home method. Chronotype. Sufferers from rheumatism report speedy relief from these tortures after trying Chrono-cure, which adds nature in cleansing and toning up the system. Ask your druggist, or send for FREE TRIAL of Mrs. Sumners' Chrono-cure, with useful information, by addressing The Sumners Medical Co., Box R, 55 South Bend, Ind.—Advertisement.

Here's Relief For Neuritis

Never mind when when or how those awful, stabbing pains of neuritis get a relief—now! You want relief from the torture right now!

Stop at any drug store and get a supply of "Painol." Apply a small quantity of this soothing preparation to the spot that hurts, and in a short time you should be free from pain.

"Painol" is taken up through the pores of the skin, goes direct to the troubling, aching peripheral nerves which manifest themselves in the burning influence. There is no "Painol" in the system—no dangerous drugs of any kind. Guaranteed to be absolutely harmless. For a free trial, write to "Painol" at 101 Third Street, San Francisco. Get it at all drug stores and all other leading druggists. Typical Company, Mfr. Chemist, 101 Third St., San Francisco.—Advertisement.

What's Happening in Motor World

By EMIL REINHARDT

Hudson and Essex car prices have been again reduced, according to a telegram received from the Motor Industries, by E. A. Hamilton of Hamilton and Wichman, dealers here.

The price reduction amounts to a hundred dollars on the Hudson open models, and the coach two hundred on the Hudson sedan. The price of the Essex coach has been cut a hundred dollars and the other two models, the touring car and the cabriolet remain the same as before.

The reduction comes as a complete surprise to me out here, because cars have been selling just about as fast as we could get them, and November proved a record month throughout the state," said Hamilton.

Two hundred and one Hudson and two hundred and twenty-four Essex were registered in the state last month, which proved the banner month of the year.

"According to word received from the factory, the reductions were made possible by increased production and efficient factory methods. More cars were produced in the eleven months of this year than ever before in the history of the company. Enclosed cars led the production by a wide margin."

"The announcement last fall that Hudson and Essex had designed coaches, that would sell for only slightly more than open models of the same make created more interest than most automobile changes. At the New York and Chicago shows last winter, hundreds of orders were taken for cars, and one success was repeated at the Oakland show this year and at the San Francisco show. Since that time practically eighty per cent of Hudson and Essex deliveries in this part of the state have been enclosed cars."

DE PALMA HEADS FOR SPAGHETTI ON HIS RELEASE

FRESNO, Dec. 13. (By the Associated Press).—Where can I get a good spaghetti dinner? Nine days and no spaghetti; that is a terrible thing for me to endure.

These were the words of Ralph de Palma, racing driver, when he arrived in Fresno this afternoon after more than a week's rest in the Madera county jail, where he was confined for speeding.

De Palma was released yesterday afternoon, one day being deducted from his sentence for good behavior. He was taken at once to an Italian cafe where he ate to his heart's content.

"I am going to call up Bebe Daniels and tell her that I am in her class now. Maybe we can form a Jail Birds' Association," said De Palma.

"I just talked to my wife and told her I was out for good behavior. She recommended that I practice a little at home."

FIRST DEATH IN SMITH COLLEGE CLASS OF '83

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Dec. 13.—What is said to have been the first death among the members of the Smith college class that was graduated thirty-nine years ago, was reported to college authorities today. Mrs. Alice Ward Bailey of Minneapolis, author of the "Sage Brush Parson," killed in an automobile accident near that city recently, was one of 49 members of the class of 1873, "who so far as was known had suffered no break in their ranks previously. At its twenty-fifth reunion, the class, with every member present, chose as its emblem the peacock, symbol of immortality."

Piedmont Parlor To Give Light Pole

Piedmont Parlor No. 130, N. E. G. W., at a meeting Thursday evening elected the following officers for the ensuing term of six months: President, H. Raymond Hall; first vice-president, Fred H. Mueller; second vice-president, Nicholas J. Heinemann; third vice-president, John M. Bary; recording secretary, Charles Morando; financial secretary, Conrad A. Moreno; treasurer, Richard M. Hamo; marshal, Frank J. Vargas; inside sentinel, Louis Silvera; outside sentinel, John J. Roach; surgeons, Dr. James C. S. Akery, Dr. Charles D. Cobb and Dr. Nicholas J. Cleck; trustees, Edward Tnele, Joseph L. Thomas and Harold Ober.

Piedmont Parlor voted to donate one pole for the proposed plan of poles to be erected around Lake Merritt for the purpose of beautifying and lighting the lake.

Hunter Will Speak To High Twelve

Fred M. Hunter, city superintendent of schools, will be the principal speaker at the Oakland High Twelve luncheon next Friday.

The subject will be "The Little Red Schoolhouse Education for your Children and Mine."

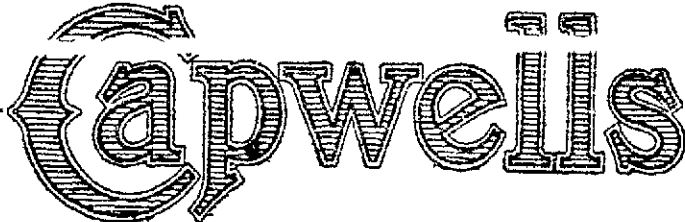

Three-minute talks will be given by Sophus R. Nelson, Clarence Martensten and Charles J. Truman, newly elected officers of the High Twelve club. The entertainment program will include Mrs. Barbara Barnett, soprano, soloist, with Mr. T. Wilhelm Eckert at the piano. Archie Thomas, soloist, also will present several numbers.

Two Bakers Fined Under Pure Food Act

MARTINEZ, Dec. 13.—W. A. Sellick and Fred Kuhn, until recently engaged in the bakery business here, appeared before Justice of the Peace Frank Glass today to answer to a charge of alleged violation of the pure food act, and on their pleas of guilty they were fined $10 each. The complaints were issued August 10 at the instance of C. B. Keller, state agent. Lengthy complaints allege that both Kuhn and Sellick held for sale food known as "jelly roll" that did not contain jelly, but substitutes.

CARS LEAVE TRACK, 3 KILLED.
CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Five railroad employees were injured when several passenger coaches of a wreck train of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad left the rails here today. One of two men, buried under the wreckage, is in a dying condition.

KLX HEARD ON S. P. LIMITED AT OMAHA, NEBRASKA

Transcontinental Passengers in Observation Enjoy Tribune Program En Route.

What is held to be one of the most remarkable demonstrations of what can be done with radio has just been accomplished by the Southern Pacific Company in the installation of a radio receiving set on the Overland Limited, between San Francisco and Chicago.

On Monday, the set tuned in on the TRIBUNE's station while the train was at Omaha, Neb., according to a telegram reaching the Southern Pacific headquarters in San Francisco. The TRIBUNE's station, KLX, was heard regularly every evening on the loud speaker, which was installed in the observation car of the Limited. The set on the observation car provided entertainment for everyone on board throughout the entire trip. While passing through the mountainous regions the signals from radio-telephone stations could be heard distinctly while the train was passing through tunnels, some of them hundreds of feet below the surface.

The receiving set picked up other stations in the bay district, as well as KLX, but KLX was the only station reported to have been heard as far east as Omaha.

The special set, which was installed in the Southern Pacific's West Oakland shops by R. L. Ludwig, radio engineer of San Francisco, consists of a three-stage radio-frequency amplifier and a two-stage audio-frequency amplifier, having an average receiving range of 2000 miles. The antenna consists of a loop around the ceiling of the coach, well insulated from the steel interior.

The set was installed on the Overland train as an experiment. John McGuire, radio expert of San Francisco, accompanied the train east and had charge of the operating of the set. In the telegram which contained the information that KLX was heard at Omaha, McGuire stated that the receiver had worked much better than he had anticipated. Evidence of its success is shown by the fact that while en route the train picked up radio-telephone stations from practically all parts of the country.

Divorce Is Sought After 35 Years

Thirty-five years ago, on June 2, 1887, Mrs. Ada M. Aymer and Ira A. Aymer were married here. Today the wife seeks a divorce, alleging that her husband deserted her on November 1 last. She asks for $75 a month alimony, declaring that she is now dependent upon her son, Clarence A. Aymer. There is also a daughter, Verna, and both children are over 30 years of age.

TRIBUNE RADIO CLUB WILL VOTE ON NEW BY-LAWS

Ballot Will Be Taken At Next Meeting to Be Held At Roof Garden Friday.

The December meeting of The Oakland TRIBUNE Radio Club will be held Friday evening at The TRIBUNE roof garden, where a program of entertainment and speeches will be given.

The primary business of the club will be to adopt a set of by-laws which will be drafted this evening by the committee on by-laws, which will meet simultaneously with a like committee from the technical branch of the club, which will draft by-laws for the branch organization. The two committees will meet at The TRIBUNE roof garden at 8 o'clock. The committee on by-laws from the O. T. R. C. is composed of N. J. Rice, chairman; J. Taylor, Harry Warn and E. L. Reynolds.

BIG ATTENDANCE DESIRED.

The entertainment committee appointed to secure entertainment for the next meeting has not met yet but entertainment will be secured by the radio department of The TRIBUNE for Friday night's meeting, after which all entertainment will be supervised entirely by the committee composed of H. D. Francom, Paul Breck, Harold Grabe, George Williams and Walter Doyle.

The last meeting of the O. T. R. C. held at Ashmeas Temple was one of the largest and most enthusiastic gatherings held since the club was organized. Friday evening's meeting at The TRIBUNE roof garden is expected to be as large as the last one, and all members are requested to attend in order that unanimous approval of the by-laws may be obtained. The Oakland TRIBUNE Radio Club meets every third Friday of the month, and the technical branch of the O. T. R. C. meets

A SIN TO LET HAIR FALL OUT

Hair—Ends Dandruff!
Delightful Tonic

Hurry! It's your duty! Each day you see a little more hair falling out and you are making no effort to avoid baldness. What a pity. Falling hair means your hair is weak, sick—possibly dandruff is strangling it, or the hair root pores in the scalp are not firm and tight, thus wasting the hair-growing oils. Dandruff almost instantly stops falling hair of men or women and cleans every particle of dandruff away, then the hair takes on new life, vigor and strength to grow strong, thick and long. Dandruff is delightful—not sticky or greasy. Go to any drug store now and get a bottle. Use it. Have healthy, heavy, beautiful hair, and lots of it.—Advertisement.

Worden, Mr. and Mrs. Louis James, Mr. and Mrs. George Stimmell, Mr. and Mrs. George Friend, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Willson.

Guests have been bidden by Mrs. Roger Chickering for luncheon the afternoon of Tuesday, December 19, at the town and country club across the bay. A dozen intimate friends will share her hospitality.

In honor of Miss Jean Hunt, bride-elect, a bride tea was given to a score of friends Saturday afternoon by Miss Virginia Silverstone of the Encinal city. The home was arranged in Christmas berries and greenery. Those who played bridge were: Miss Jean Hunt, Miss Ada Burrell, Miss Elizabeth Vaughn, Miss Marion Vaughn, Miss Antoinette O'Brien, Miss Jean McCaw, Miss Carmen Ibarrio, Miss Alberta Clark, Miss Jean Bush, Miss Thyllis Collinsworth, Miss Helen Cathrell, Miss Lucille Ehrenberg, Miss Virginia Bangle, Miss Olive Merle, Miss Elizabeth Vaughn, Miss Helen Paul, the Misses Hazel and Phillis Burnmeister, Miss Gladys Cameron, Miss Mary Kramer, Miss Marie Hanlon, Miss Eleanor Gutch, Miss Audrey Marline and Miss Miriam Hughes.

At a sprightly dinner given recently, the engagement of Miss Clara Anne Field and F. Warde Brand was announced with the news that their marriage would take place at the close of the college in May. Miss Field plans to continue her studies as she will not graduate until 1922. She is the daughter of J. R. Field of Emmett, Idaho.

Brand is a former student of the University of California and Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity member. He is now in business across the bay.

Courtesy Card For Traveling Clubwomen

By EDNA B. KINARD.

A courtesy card for traveling clubwomen is the latest innovation in federated groups. The privilege is extended through the cooperation of the district, state and general federations. The happy passport will admit the visitor in California, the United States, Honolulu and other countries affiliated with the General Federation to whatever club program she may care to enjoy upon its presentation. In this way will the women of the nation be brought into closer contact with each other and a new avenue of exchange established.

When a clubwoman is anticipating a journey from a city where she makes her home, upon application to the district or state corresponding secretary or to the federation extension department, she will receive the courtesy card which will open all club doors before her. The one return favor which will be asked of her will be a report of her visit filed with the secretary of her own club upon the return home.

Announcement of the new privileges is made by Mrs. Clarence M. Haring of Berkeley, chairman of federation extension, California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Blanche Roland of Oakland, corresponding secretary of Alameda district, C. F. W. C., will forward the courtesy cards upon application from local clubwomen.

Manuscripts in the December contest of the fiction section of the California Writers' Club may be filed tonight at the monthly dinner in the Young Women's Christian Association building, according to the announcement of Miss Elizabeth Everett, chairman. The staff of the Overland Monthly will act as judges. Miss Lois Atkins, literary critic of New York, acted as judge in the October contest.

At the December contest, Mrs. Mabel H. Wharton, Torrey Connor, with honorable mention to Miss Clara Taft. The November contest gave honors to Mrs. Amy Parish, Mrs. Una E. Bunker, Mrs. Woodson Allen, John H. Hamlin, Anna Blake Mezquida, Gerald Beaumont, Jean Campbell Macmillan and Harry Noyes Pratt, fictionists and writers of verse, who will share in the honors of the December club dinner tonight, contributing to the program. Charles Keeler, Berkeley poet, will preside as chairman.

The Yule log will be lighted at a charming Christmas ceremony at which the Renaissance Circle will celebrate the season on Friday afternoon in the Newman club-house, Berkeley. Christmas carols will be sung and Christmas stories will be told by the members. Mrs. J. E. Hanlon, president, will relate the story of the origin of the Yule log.

Miss Lorita Ellen Grady of San Francisco and Mrs. Edith M. Bushnell will be the guests of honor of the day. Miss Grady, author of "The Green Forest Fairy Book," will tell some of its pretty tales. Japanese and modern specimens of Bushnell on this form of art. The Renaissance Circle devoted to the study of art numbers some 100 prominent Catholic women in its membership.

Plans for a contest to be held in the spring will be discussed tonight at a meeting of the short story and scenario section of the College Women's Club. Miss Dororo Adams, chairman, will preside over the conference of original writers.

"Welding Oakland" is the subject which Irving Kahn, vice-president of Kahn Bros., a director in the Chamber of Commerce, will present before the weekly luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's Club tomorrow. A program of songs will be rendered by Mrs. Howard Bacon.

An auction for the benefit of the club property fund will be a feature of the luncheon. The merchandise which will be contested for includes electrical conveniences, lamps, hats, sweaters, pillows, comforters, hand embroidery, candy, etc.

Mrs. Gladys Barnardollar is the club president.

Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs is substituting a half day session for the regular monthly program on Tuesday in the Young Women's Christian Association building. Mrs. E. V. Vollmer, president, has called the conference of leaders for 10:30 a. m., promising adjournment shortly after the noon hour.

A 25-cent community luncheon is announced for tomorrow by the Sacramento Parent-Teacher Association in the auditorium of the Col-

Cantilever Shoe

Shoes That Fit
Don't Deform

Breathes there the woman who hasn't yearned to secure a shoe fit in fashion, able shoes? When pointed toes were in fashion, that was, of course, impossible. Nature didn't make feet and time couldn't deform feet sufficiently to fit perfectly into shoes so fashioned. But now—in the Cantilever Shoe, women can secure fashionable footwear that fits.

It fits, because designed not to deform but to fit. And the Cantilever arch, flexible like your own, is the final need, which bends willingly with every step you take, giving you a freedom of action that holds off fatigue, and allows that strengthening exercise of muscles which corrects and prevents weak arches.

What that will mean to you in the way of improved circulation, higher color and better spirits you don't need to be told. Let us show you a pair on your feet.

A Cantilever shoe gift certificate will be appreciated.

WOMAN ON WAY TO PETALUMA IS FOUND IN HOLD

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Feeble tapping on the wall of a dark, airless, sand-filled compartment in the hold of the steamship six days out from Bremen, led to the discovery of Christiana Wilhelmida Ida Klingeman, 41 years old, a stowaway, who, having lived for nearly a week on bread and sausages, was forced to crawl out of her hiding place after having gone three days without water.

Miss Klingeman explained that she had been a stewardess on German steamers six years before the war but had been unable to get employment since. She said she came here to join three cousins in California, one of whom, Emil Musserbach, a school teacher of Petaluma, she said, had promised to send her money to cross the continent.

SECOND NEGRO LYNCHED PERRY, Fla., Dec. 13.—The second of two negroes arrested Friday in connection with the murder of Miss Ruby Hendry, school teacher, the previous Saturday, was lynched last night when Arthur Young was taken from the officers as they were attempting to transfer him to another jail. Charlie Wright was burned at the stake

Why is it some women can make PERFECT PIE CRUST —and others always fail?

MANY women do not know that the secret of making a light, crisp pie crust, so flaky it will "melt in your mouth", is in the kind of shortening you use.

Animal fats contain water and may not mix so completely with your other ingredients. This often tends to make "doughy" lumps in your cake. Your pie crust may be tough and hard to digest.

HOUSEWIVES who use Mazola never have this trouble. Mazola is a pure vegetable oil, absolutely free from all moisture. It mixes so perfectly with your other ingredients that every particle gets the same amount of shortening.

Just follow the recipe shown here carefully and the wonderful results Mazola will get for you.

Your grocer sells Mazola in pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon tins, packed and sealed under expert supervision. It is never sold in bottles or bulk. If Mazola is unsatisfactory to you, your grocer refunds the cost without question.

FREE—Beautifully illustrated 64-page Cook Book. Write to Johnson-Locks Mercantile Co., 1 Drumm St., San Francisco, Cal.

MAZOLA
Best for Salads and Cooking

Pie Crust
1/2 teaspoon Salt, 1/2 cup Mazola
1 1/2 cups Sifted Pastry Flour
1/2 teaspoon Baking Powder
4 tablespoons Cold Water
Sift dry ingredients. Add water to Mazola and beat until creamy. Mix quickly into dry ingredients. Toss onto slightly floured board and roll to desired thickness.

SHASTA GLACIERS DANGER FOR CLIMB, WARNING

No Decision Reached As to Number in Tribune's
New Year Party.

Further warning concerning the dangers of the New Year's ascent of Mt. Shasta have been received from Jesse R. Hall, supervisor of Shasta national forest, with headquarters at Sisson. The trip to the great glacier mountain is being arranged by The TRIBUNE for the purpose of calling the attention of the world to the fact that Mt. Shasta is now ready to welcome mountain climbers from everywhere and to offer them shelter in the Shasta Alpine Lodge, situated at Horse Camp, eight miles from Sisson, at 5000 feet elevation.

Charles Warner, member of the Sierra Club, Contra Costa Hills Club and Mazamas and well-known mountaineer, will lead the trip to Shasta. In response to a letter written by Warner, Hall states that the glaciers, of which there are five on Shasta, are now very dangerous because of soft snow having filled the tops of many crevasses. This snow might give way and precipitate an individual or an entire party to the depths of a crevasse. These crevasses are huge cracks in the ice of the glaciers and are sometimes hundreds of feet deep.

The leaders of The TRIBUNE party, while recognizing the hazards mentioned by Hall and others, will make every preparation and exercise thorough precaution to insure safety.

A number of applicants have requested the privilege of accompanying Warner on the Shasta climb. No definite decision has yet been reached as to who will be allowed to go and it is probable that a number of further applications will come in as the date of the ascent approaches. Only a small party will be taken, probably not more than five or six, as a party of five or six can climb with greater safety than a larger party.

CANNED GOODS

PATTERSON, Dec. 13.—A

ransacking the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McNally, during their absence in Modesto, took nothing but two dozen quart cans of fruit. There was evidence that he had visited every room, for trunks had been opened, bureau drawers pulled out and their contents scattered about, evidently in search for money and valuables.

Four Are Injured
By Oakland Autos

Mike Wright and Edward Nelson were injured slightly when they were struck by an automobile while crossing the street at Twentieth and San Pablo avenues early last night. They were taken to the Emergency hospital. The machine was driven by Richard Dixon, 1144 Fifty-fifth street.

Mrs. C. N. Gill, 911 Twenty-first street, was struck by an automobile at Fourteenth and Franklin streets. The machine was driven by R. M. Jones, 2038 Broadway. She was treated at the Emergency hospital for cuts and bruises.

As the result of a head-on collision between two automobiles, Mrs. Otto Barth, 5344 Lawton street, was cut and bruised. The accident occurred at Forty-ninth and Lawton avenue. George A. Cockerton, 4327 Shattuck avenue, was the driver of one of the machines and Otto Barth of the other.

Napa Woman's Death
Hastened by Injuries

NAPA, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Amelia Carey, wife of William H. Carey, died at the family residence on Silverado Trail, a mile northeast of Napa, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Carey's death was hastened by injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Vineburg last February.

She was 58 years old and a native of San Francisco. She had resided in Napa since 1906.

There are left to mourn her loss besides the husband these children: W. J. Carey, Mrs. E. L. Kito, and Mrs. Carl Jordan of Napa. There are five grandchildren. A sister, Mrs. Kate Gavin, resides in San Francisco.

LANE URGED COX TO BE FAIR WITH C. O. P. IN NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

"Unforgivable Sin in Our Politics Is Lack of Generosity," Secretary Wrote to Democratic Nominee

WILSON LEAGUE IDEA SCORED

This is the ELEVENTH letter. Another will be printed tomorrow. (Copyright, 1922, by Anne W. Lane)

To James M. Cox, Democratic Nominee for President.

New York City, July 25, 1920.

My Dear Governor—I shall presume upon your flattering invitation to speak frankly, not in the hope that I may in any way enlighten a man of such experience and success, but that I may possibly accentuate some point that you may recognize as important which, in the rush of things, might be overlooked. If I should appear in the least didactic, I beg that you charge it to my desire for definiteness, and my inability to give the atmosphere of a personal conversation.

F. E. LANE

The unforgivable sin in our politics is a lack of generosity. Smallness, meanness, extreme partisanship, littleness of any kind—these are not in accord with the American conception of an American leader. A clever thing may gratify a man's own immediate partisan following, but the impression on the country at large is not good. We want a full, adequate appreciation of the fact that there is hardly more than a film that divides Republican from Democrat; indeed, in that fact lies our hope of success. We must win first voters and independents.

Let me be concrete. The war was won by Republicans as well as Democrats. Therefore, I would say, give generously of appreciation to the Republicans, who raised Liberty loans, who administered food affairs, who put their plants at the nation's service, who directed the various activities, such as airplane making and transporting and financing during the war.

A day has come when partisanship with its personalities and bitterness does not satisfy the public. We have seen things on too large a scale now to believe in the importance of trifles, or in the adequacy of trifling men.

We must have men who are large enough to be international and national at the same time, to be politicians and yet American statesmen, to subordinate always the individual ambition and the party advantage to the national good.

President's League Methods Wrong.

I feel that we have not tried to interpret the League of Nations to our people in terms of America's advantage. We Democrats are looked upon as international visionaries because we have not been willing to deal practically with a practical situation.

The league is not anti-national, it is anti-war; its aim is to defer war and reduce the chances of war between nations. This is to be effected, not by creating a super-nation, or by binding us to abide by the decisions of a super-national tribunal, but by establishing the method and machinery by which the opinion of the world may become effective as against those inclined toward war.

By adopting the league, we do not pledge ourselves to any war under any circumstances, without the consent of Congress. And because we have not been willing to say this, we are now in danger of losing the one chance the world has had to get the nations together.

Loyalty to the President's principles does not mean loyalty to his methods. They have been wrong as to the league, in my opinion. You could deal with Congress, even a Republican Congress, on this matter, I believe, and come out with the essentials.

Don't let Bryan get away from you, if you can help it, because he really represents a great body of moral force and opinion. But don't pay the price to Bryan or Wilson or Hearst or Murphy or any one else, of being untrue to your own belief as to the wise and practical national policy, that you may gain in their support.

There couldn't be a better year in which to lose, for something real. You can't win as a Wilson man, nor as a Murphy man, nor as a Hearst man. The nation is crying out for leadership, not pussy-footing nor pandering. Be wrong strongly if you must be wrong, rather than be right weakly. You can only win as a Cox man, one who owns himself, has his own policies, is willing to go along, not with a bunch of bosses, but with any reasonable man, asks for counsel from all classes of men and women, does not fear defeat, and expects a victory that will be more a party victory than a personal one, and more a people's victory than a partisan one.

Pick a Few Enemies; Use Discretion.

Pick a few enemies and pick them with discretion. Chiefly be for things. But be against things and persons, too, so that the nation can visualize you as leading in a contest between the constructive forces and the destructive critical

And the thing to be against is the man who is looking backward, who talks of the "good old days," meaning (a) money in politics, buying votes in blocks of five; (b) human beings as commodities, Homestead strikes and instructions how to vote in the pay envelope; (c) privately controlled national finances as against the federal reserve system; (d) taxation of the poor through indirect taxes on pretext of protecting industry; (e) 75-cent wheat; (f) dollar a day labor; (g) the saloon-bossed city; (h) no American merchant marine; all goods carried abroad under foreign flags—those were the "good old days," for which the Standpat Republican is sighing.

But the world has moved in the past twenty-five years, and America not only has moved it, but has kept in the lead. * * * A greater America—that is our objective. We want our unused lands put to use. We want the farm made more attractive through better rural schools, better roads everywhere, more frequent connection between town and farm, better means of distribution of products. We want more men with garden homes instead of tenement houses.

We want our waters, that flow idly to the sea, put to use; more stored water for irrigation, more hydro-electric plants to supply industries, railroads and home and farming activities. There should be electric lights upon the farm, and power for the sewing machine and the churn. It can be done, because it is being done on the best farms of the far west. We want our streams controlled so that they do not wash away our cities, farms and railroads, and so as to redeem the submerged bottom lands for the next generation. * * * We want fewer boys and girls, men and women, who cannot read or write the language of our laws, newspapers and

STATE INSURANCE OFFICIAL RESIGNS

After having organized and managed the state compensation insurance fund for nine years, C. W. Fellows, head of the institution, has presented his resignation, the members of the Industrial Accident Commission, to take effect December 31. Fellows has given up his position with the state in order to head a new policy holders insurance company with executive offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Fellows will have associated with him other members of the state fund staff, who have also presented their resignations at the effect at the same time. Among them are E. R. Welch, secretary (assistant manager) of the state fund; H. B. Humphrey, the Los Angeles manager; L. S. Moorhead, assistant at Los Angeles; and E. L. Dougherty, superintendent of the San Francisco district.

Fellows was appointed by Hiram W. Johnson when the latter was governor and is one of the four appointive state officers receiving a salary of $10,000 a year. A plan was recently announced by those assisting Governor-elect Richardson in the preparation of a budget, by which it was proposed to cut Fellows salary to $4000.

literature. * * * that those who live with us may really be of us. * * *

Dignify Profession of Teaching.

We should dignify the profession of teaching as the foundation profession of modern democratic life. We want definite and continuing studies made of our great industrial fiscal and social problems. The framing of our policies should not be left to emotional caprice, or the opportunism of any group of men, but should be the result of sympathetic and deep study by the wisest men we have, irrespective of their politics. There should be industrial conferences, such as those recently inaugurated, to arrive at the ways by which those who furnish the financial arm of industry and those who furnish the working arm of industry may most profitably and productively be brought into cooperation.

Through the study of what has been done we can give direction to our national thought and work with a will toward a condition in which labor will have recognition and be more certainly insured against the perils of non-occupation and old age, and capital become entitled to a sure return, be cause more constantly and productively used.

Then, too, we need a study made of the health conditions of our children—of the reason for the large percentage of undeveloped and subnormal children who are brought to our schools, and the larger number who do not reach maturity. * * * Underfed boys and ignorant boys are the ones who turn to bolshevism. We can not stand pat and let things drift without their drifting, not to the "good old days," but to bad new days.

Why should not our system of taxation be subject for the profoundest study? * * * We must find ways by which the individual may have tools for production which his skill and foresight and thrift have created and yet take for society in taxes what society itself gives. * * * There must come to society an increasingly large portion of the wealth created by each generation through inheritance taxes. Thus all our boys and girls will start the race of life more nearly at the scratch. This will be for the making of the race and for the enriching of the whole of society. Yet there must be saved, surely, the call upon the man of talent for every ounce of energy that he has and every spark of imagination.

We want our soldiers and sailors to be more certain of our gratitude and to have an opportunity to realize their own ambition for themselves. We must not be driven into any foolish or impossible course by the pressure of a desire to win their votes. On the contrary, the pressure should come from us who had not the opportunity to risk our lives, that those who did take such risk shall be highly honored. For those who will identify themselves with the tilling of the soil, there should be farms, small yet complete, for which they can gradually pay on long time. For others there should be such education for professional or industrial life as they desire. For others, a home, not a speculation in real estate, but a piece of that American soil for which they fought. For these things we can pay without extra financial strain, if we dedicate to this purpose merely the interest upon the moneys which other nations owe us. The extent of our willingness to help these men is not to be measured by their request, but rather by our ability and their lasting welfare.

"This Is Our Hour of Test"

We are to extend our activities into all parts of the world. Our trade is to grow as never before. Our people are to resume their old place as traders on the seven seas. We are to know other peoples better and make them all more and more our friends, working with them as mutually dependent factors in the growth of the world's life. For this day a definite foreign policy must be made, one that is fair to which none can take exception. Our people shall go abroad for their good and the good of other lands, with their skilled hands and their resourceful minds, and their energetic capital, and they must be assured of support abroad, as at home, in every honest venture.

America's ambition is to lead the world in showing what Democracy can effect. This would be my conception of the large idea of the campaign. It involves much more than the be little in our conception of ourselves, nor yet have a conceit that is self-destructive.

America must prove herself a living thing, with policies that are adequate to new conditions. * * * We wish an international settlement that will enable us to be more supremely great as nationalists. This is the significance of the League of Nations. It is a plan of hope. It is the only plan which the mind of man has evolved which any number of nations has ever been willing to accept as a buffer against devil-made war. * * * It is a monumental experiment which this century and other centuries will talk of and think of and write of because it involves the lives of men and women under it, and there is the possibility of giving our full thought and energy and wealth to making life more enjoyable and finer instead of more horrible and cruel. While other nations are in the mood, we should agree with them; that we may spend our lives and money in a rivalry of progress rather than in a competition in the art of scientific boy-murder. There are times when war is the ultimate and necessary appeal, but those times should be made fewer by American genius and sacrifice.

And our prestige and power should not be wasted at this critical time, because out of some fecund mind may come an abstract and legalistic plan for some other kind of league. Let us be practical. Let us go to the fullest limit with other nations who are now willing to join hands with us, yet never yielding the constitutional congressional control over our war making. * * * Let us take thought today of our opportunities else these may not exist tomorrow.

Cordially yours, FRANKLIN K. LANE.

SMOKING RULED AGAINST IN S. J. STREET CARS

SAN JOSE, Dec. 13.—No longer will smoke screens cover the interior of San Jose street cars, for the city council, aroused over the numerous complaints from the practice, has passed an ordinance forbidding smoking on any and all street cars within the limits of the city of San Jose. In the old days it was permissible to smoke on the platforms of street cars, but with the influx of small, platformless cars, smokers have been taking the privilege of smoking on the cars. * * * children and persons not in the best of health have been suffering greatly from the practice. The ordinance will go into effect within 30 days.

Churchmen Meet In Federal Council

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 13.—More than 100 prominent churchmen representing thirty-two Protestant denominations, gathered here today for the opening session of the annual meeting of the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches of America. The meeting will continue through Friday. Among the subjects to be discussed are: International relations and cooperation, "Progress of the Fight for Peace," "The Eighteenth Amendment" under the topic of "Prohibition or Trial? What Is the Verdict?" "The Work of the Churches in the Army and Navy," "Interpreting the Gospel to the Modern Man" and "Evangelism as a Primary Business of the Church."

WARNING ISSUED AGAINST 'I INHIB'

AFTER ARRESTS

Prohibition Director Advises Bootleg Buyers of Danger of 'Goods' Proving Fatal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—"If you must drink bootleg whisky, don't drink any coming from the J. C. Millet establishment at 313 Clay street. It is poison."

This was the warning issued to all who are in the market for illicit Christmas cheer by Prohibition Director S. F. Rutter today, as a result of seizures at the Millet establishment and the arrest of Millet and his partner, L. A. Podesta. According to Rutter, the warning is to forestall possible poisoning, blindness or fatalities resulting from the drinking of denatured alcohol which, he says, was contained in hundreds of gallons of liquor seized in a raid on Friday night. Yesterday the Federal sleuths seized a shipment of 75 cases of "rubbing alcohol" from Los Angeles about to be delivered to the Millet establishment. The shipment is said to have come from the Normandie Cosmetic Company in Los Angeles, which closed at the time of Millet's arrest. Federal officers are seeking the company officials. Rutter said today that the alcohol was made by the Mason Distilling Company at Sausalito and the Western Distillery at Agnew, and was sold to the cosmetic concern for legitimate manufacturing purposes. Millet and Podesta were held for trial in the United States District court yesterday in bonds of $1000 each and announcement was made by the United States district attorney's office that the case would be brought before the Federal grand jury.

Home Electrification—Common Sense versus the grab-bag method

HOTPOINT GRECIAN URN PERCOLATOR SET

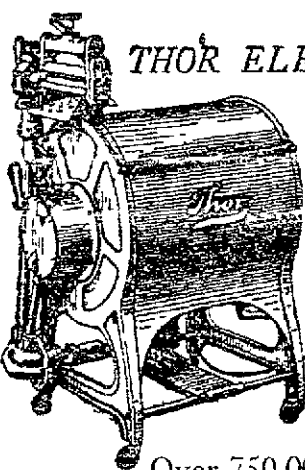

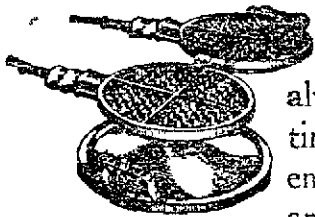

—Very desirable for use in large families, on social occasions or for gift purposes. Constructed throughout of copper and finished in polished nickel plate. Tray, Sugar Bowl and Creamer are of copper, heavily nickel-plated and polished. Sugar Bowl and Creamer are silver-lined. Guaranteed for one year by Edison Electric Appliance Company.

HOTPOINT HUGHES ELECTRIC WATER HEATER—Adapted for either storage or intermittent water heating. May be easily installed and does not require a special tank. Sheath-wire heating unit transmits heat to water with 100% efficiency. Easily cleaned, solidly built—will last for years.

THE NEW HOT POINT WAFFLE IRON—

A simple means to delicious waffles, prepared electrically, without smoke or bother—right at the breakfast table. It is equipped with double aluminum plates which bake the entire waffle at one time without "flipping." The heating units are of the enclosed sheath wire type which gives the user long and continuous service. Convenient handles, hinges, etc. insure ease of operation and cleaning.

THOR ELECTRIC WASHING MACHINE—

The Thor washes everything from fine laces to grimy overalls without any rubbing. It does the week's washing in half the time required by hand methods and eliminates all the hard work of hand rubbing and rinsing. The Thor is scientifically constructed and solidly made. Always ready and seldom gets out of order. On the market 14 years. Over 750,000 now in use. Has G-E motor.

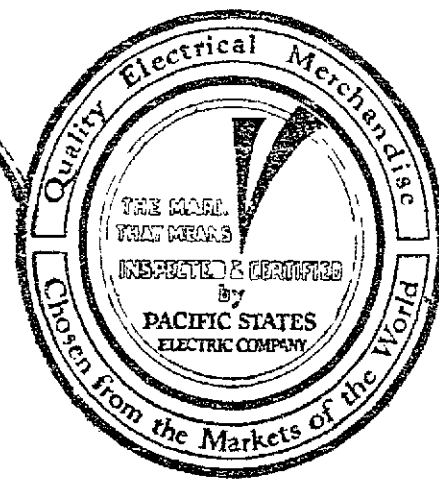

COMMON sense urges the wisdom of hiring a qualified electrical contractor who will use standard materials, employ good workmanship, and charge a fair price. He will study the problem of electrifying your home as a whole and present you with a complete solution, satisfactory in every detail, including the choice of appliances.

The grab-bag method is to pick a contractor at random—usually the lowest bidder, with the result that eventually you spend five times that small initial saving in replacing the inferior workmanship and sub-standard materials which made the lower bid possible.

The appliances shown on this page are representative of a complete line of standard electrical merchandise which the Pacific States Electric Company, with a world market from which to choose, has selected, inspected and certified with the "check" seal of quality. They are distributed through responsible dealers and electrical contractors who are qualified in every way to give you the sort of service which you have a right to expect.

Look for the "check" seal as a reliable aid to common sense in choosing a responsible electrical contractor and obtaining standard electrical merchandise.

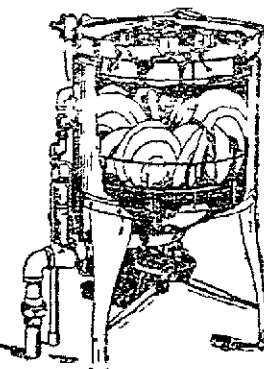

The electrical appliances shown on this page, together with other standard electrical products, certified by the "check" seal, are described in our new booklet "The Electrical How for Householders." You will enjoy this booklet, with its many practical suggestions for the convenient and economical utilization of electricity in your home. It may be obtained free from any electrical contractor or dealer displaying this seal.

LAW'S RULES BAR CLAIMS OF HEIR TO KYLE RICHES

Pierce Must Find His Foster Mother to Get Legal Evidence.

The stern requirements of the law today stood as the last remaining obstacle to a happy ending of the real-life romance revealed last week by Frank S. Pierce, which, if true, would make the long-suffering claimant the son of a famous actor and the rightful heir to the estate of the late Robert Bruce Kyle of Kentucky and Oakland.

According to Public Administrator Albert E. Hill, Pierce has proved as almost a moral certainty that he is the son of the late Anna D. Kyle, Louisville beauty of Civil War days, and the Union Brigadier-General John Pembroke Spofford of New York, and consequently the nephew and heir of Robert Bruce Kyle.

But, Hill declared today, Pierce has so far presented scarcely a scrap of the kind of evidence that would be accepted in a court of law. Unless he can produce such evidence before the public administrator is compelled by law to close the estate, the money, jewelry, heirlooms, and real estate left by Kyle, amounting to nearly $100,000, will go to the state, and the status of Pierce as a white man without a trace of negro blood will still be without legal substantiation.

WOMAN ONLY HOPE.

Practically Pierce's sole hope of producing such evidence rests upon the chance of his locating Mammy Eliza Hill, for whom he is now searching in Los Angeles. It was believed at the public administrator's office today. It was Mammy Eliza, Pierce says, who was given the care of him by Anna Kyle when, soon after his birth in Louisville, she died with her brother Robert to California. According to Pierce, she will testify that the child she brought him up as her own son, he was actually the son of Anna D. Kyle, and the northern general who was the While Pierce is looking for Mammy Eliza a telegram from the latter's daughter in Kentucky is to the effect that Mammy Eliza is looking for Kyle, in an effort to help him straighten out the strange tangle regarding his birth and his right to the Kyle estate. She left Kentucky on a false scent, however, according to this telegram, for she departed for Los Angeles, where she understood that Pierce was living.

EMIGH KNEW PIERCE.

While Pierce was in Los Angeles looking for Mammy Eliza yesterday, Police Inspector William Emigh held a conference with Public Administrator Albert E. Hill, in which the police official told of having met Pierce several months ago during the investigation of the Shouse murder, and on an earlier occasion when he met Pierce on a steamer coming from Los Angeles.

Emigh said that Pierce had told him at that time that he was 65 years old, although he now says his age is 44.

He told me on the train that his people had participated in the Civil War," Emigh told Hill, "and also that he had been one of Roosevelt's Rough Riders."

I did not see him again until we were investigating the murder of Edward (Doc) Shouse last August, when Pierce came to police headquarters and volunteered some information. He said at the time he knew of some occurrences which might shed some light on the motive for the murder. He said he did not know Shouse personally, although Shouse was also a Kentuckian.

Four Held to Courts On Robbery Charge

Three men charged with robbery were today held to answer to the Superior Court and the fourth member of the alleged gang, Larry Williams, a 16-year-old youth, was committed to the Juvenile Court. They were arrested in Richmond after they were alleged to have held up the Panama Hotel on Seventh street. The holdup occurred two weeks ago. Emil Lachoustra, owner of the hotel, was held and robbed of $40. Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell set their bail at $10,000 each.

GIRL CONSIDERS SUIT ALMOST AS GIFT

"Goodness, did you see Jane's lovely new suit today? Stunning. I bought a new hat, too."

"Yes, and she told me last week that she was suffering for some new clothes and didn't see how she could get a thing until after the first of the year. She said she had to spend so much money for Christmas."

"Maybe she felt her to some money or something. That looks like a mighty expensive suit and hat to me. She looks like a million dollars in it. Here she comes now. Hello, Jane, we were just wondering if you felt like a million, since you have that wonderful new suit, or have you decided to swear off the Christmas presents?"

"Neither, girls, I just heard about Cherry's, that's all. But it's mighty important to me. I did want a suit before Christmas and didn't see how I could afford it until I heard about Cherry's, and went right out. They are at 515 Thirteenth street, and let me tell you it pays to go that much farther."

"Goodness, are they giving suits away?"

"Well, it amounts to the same as far as I am concerned. I couldn't have had it otherwise. But let me tell you. They allow you to pay on credit with six months to suit on, as you like. Such convenient payments. I never will miss that amount each month. Cherry's store for men is at 623 Thirteenth street."

MOTORISTS MAY PAY FOR SEALS AT PLAZA TENT

Christmas Seals mailed by the Alameda County Tuberculosis Association to motorists, with a plea to assist in establishing the Children's Prevention at Lavinia, may be paid for at the tent in the Oakland City Plaza. This announcement was made today from the campaign headquarters in the Ethel Moore Memorial building. Mrs. Morris Falk is in charge of the tent sales which offers to the passer-by the penny stickers. She has volunteered to take care of the maillets for the convenience of the contributors, properly accrediting the returns.

The 1922 Seal Sale carried on by the public health workers is to benefit the fund which will finance the first unit of buildings at Del Valle farm, the 45-acre property purchased near Livermore. An all-year-round camp is planned where children suffering from malnutrition and defects which later may develop into tuberculosis may be sent. Miss Annie Florence Brown is president of the County Tuberculosis Association. Mrs. Wallace M. Alexander is directing the holiday campaign, claiming active support or several hundred well-known men and women.

Youth Is Divorced From Kissing Wife

Because he saw another man kissing his wife on the public streets of Alameda and because he found her seated in an automobile with another man, Robert E. Beck was granted a divorce yesterday from Pearl E. Beck.

Beck, who told Superior Judge Harris that he was 22 years old while his wife is 18, testified that on one occasion Mrs. Beck left ing that she was going to Los Angeles on a visit. Beck said he later found out that she had been found in a Mexican saloon across the international boundary line.

Beck said that the kissing episode occurred August 29, 1922, when he saw his wife walking on Park avenue, near Willow street. A stranger came up to her and she was embraced and kissed several times, Beck said. Asked if his wife objected Beck replied, "No she put her arms around him."

Baker Is Shot By Robber In Store

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—Bandits seriously wounded Ben Kiser, proprietor of a bakery at 2726 Twenty-first avenue, and were outwitted by Miss Nellie Crowder, manager of a hotel at 168 Turk street, according to two reports to the police.

Kiser was shot by one of two bandits who entered his shop while his wife was in charge and robbed the place of $40. Kiser heard the noise from a rear room where he was working and when he went into the room one of the bandits fired. The bullet entered Kiser's abdomen. Physicians say he will die.

Last yesterday afternoon Miss Crowder tricked two bandits after they had bound and gagged her by tying them the wrong set of keys and thus gaining time to free herself and escape by jumping from a window fifteen feet above the ground.

EDUCATION MEET CALLED TRIBUTE TO FRED HUNTER

Award of Conclave to Oakland Recognition of Local Man's Ability.

"The decision of the representative assembly of the National Education Association, representing 120,000 teachers in the United States, to come to Oakland is a distinct recognition of the high regard which the association has for Superintendent Fred M. Hunter," was the statement made by H. S. Erlandson, of Washington, D. C., business manager of the National Education Association, at the Hotel Oakland today.

"We regard Mr. Hunter as one of the outstanding leaders in public education and one of the few outstanding superintendents of schools in the country at the present time. When the decision was made relative to the location of the 1923 convention, there was some feeling on the part of the delegates that the expense of holding a meeting in the Far West was too much to warrant another convention in this section of the country so soon after the Salt Lake meeting in 1912."

PRIZE FOR HUNTER.

"The leadership of Superintendent Hunter and the heavy membership of teachers in Oakland in the National Education Association, coupled with the high rating of the public school system of California, however, led the convention to determine on holding its convention here," continued Erlandson.

"According to our advance information gathered from directors of the association in every state, we anticipate an attendance of between 15,000 and 20,000. Already the central headquarters at Washington are being flooded with requests for information concerning transportation rates and facilities, and hotel accommodations available in Oakland and San Francisco."

"Many of the teachers who will attend the convention also plan to stay in the west during the summer, taking work in the colleges and universities in the nearby vicinity."

HERE AS C. G. GUEST.

Erlandson, who is seeing Oakland on his way to the City of Commerce, is delighted with the possibilities here for a convention as large as his. Having arranged for meeting in practically every large city in the United States, his knowledge of convention facilities is extensive. For this particular convention he feels that the public accommodations here are just what is required. Then there are also a number of smaller meeting halls, all of which will be used.

The National Education Association, besides holding its own general convention, will draw to it some 40 odd meetings of allied and affiliated educational organizations. It should prove a great stimulus to education throughout Oakland and the State of California.

Christmas Tree Fire Warnings Given by Chief

The annual instructions to householders about a safe and sane Christmas were issued by Chief Sam. Smith today, whose instructions are as follows:

"Do not decorate Christmas trees with paper, cotton or other inflammable material. Use metallic tinsel and other non-inflammable decorations.

"Do not use cotton as snow. Use asbestos fiber or powdered mica and there will be no fire.

"Do not use candles to illuminate trees. Electrical illumination properly installed will circumvent this danger.

"Be sure to remove your tree by New Year's day at the latest. Many fires occur after the evergreen has become dry.

"A bucket of water or a fire extinguisher should be kept handy for use in an emergency.

"Locate your nearest fire alarm box and be familiar with its use."

Harbor Expert to Visit Oakland

At the invitation of the Harbor Development Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Benjamin F. Cresson, Jr., chief engineer of the New York Port Authority, will visit Oakland Friday for a short conference.

The meeting Friday has been called for 5:45 in the morning. In addition to the members of the Harbor Development committee, there will be present representatives of the city of Oakland.

Up-Towners to Hear Report of Year

The third annual membership meeting of the Up-Town Association will be held in the assembly rooms of the Y. W. C. A., 1515 Webster street, Thursday evening. The annual report of the secretary covering the organization's activities for the past year and an address will be read, will be delivered by James G. Stafford. Stafford is a tax specialist who recently completed valuation work in several California and far western cities.

Shipyards Worker Killed By Fall

Samuel Delano, a machinist employed in the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company's yards in Alameda, was killed today when he fell from the rigging of a vessel on which he was working.

Delano fell more than thirty feet, and struck the deck. The body then fell into the estuary. It was recovered by fellow workers.

Delano lived at 1421 Campbell street and was a married man.

FIRE RECORD

A water heater in the home of G. C. Tupper, 1004 Sixty-first street, exploded today. Neighbors discovered the rear end of the kitchen.

The damage was slight.

Following the automobile accident in which Mrs. Emma Lewis was killed the department was called out to rescue the body from the wreckage. The body was removed before the department arrived.

Farmers Follow Tribune's Data On Flood Show

STOCKTON, Dec. 13.—Farmers and others who depend on irrigation in San Joaquin county are following with interest the report published daily in the Oakland TRIBUNE on the snowfall in the Sierra. They accept it as an index to the probable supply of water available for the next crop season. Figures yesterday showing eighty inches of snow at Blue Canyon, twenty-four inches at Siskiyou, and twenty-eight inches at Truckee were construed optimistically by those who study the subject. Snow that falls in the mountains before the close of the year will become so packed as to remain almost unmelting, they point out, thus furnishing a dependable source of water throughout the following summer.

WAR CERTIFICATE PAY PLAN TOLD

Joseph I. Reeborough's postmaster today issued a statement directed to the attention of owners of postage stamps. War Savings certificates should be presented to the postmaster at window 4, second floor, main postoffice in order to have a cash or check payment on stamps. The statement pointed out:

"War Savings certificates will be received for exchange of postage stamps for the purpose of obtaining a cash or check payment to be made by check to the order of the holder, which will be payable in full as possible to reach him on or about January 1, 1923."

"War Savings certificates will be received for exchange of postage stamps for the purpose of obtaining a cash or check payment to be made by check to the order of the holder, which will be payable in full as possible to reach him on or about January 1, 1923."

VETERANS DRESS CHRISTMAS TREE

BERKELEY, Dec. 13.—Susan Lincoln Mills Auxiliary No. 11 of the United Spanish War Veterans of Berkeley, in conjunction with Joseph H. McCourt, Central No. 12 of the same organization, will give to its members and their families a Christmas tree party in the Native Sons hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

There will be refreshments and Santa Claus stunts for children. All members of the United Spanish War Veterans with their families are welcome to the occasion.

Restaurant Man Held on Booze Charge

HAYWARD, Dec. 13.—Charged with having liquor in his possession and with having served it at a dance at St. Joseph's hall, San Francisco, on December 2, Peter Higgins, restaurant man of Hayward, Ore., was arrested this morning by a United States marshal on a warrant sworn to by Marshal Peralta of Hayward.

Eggs! Eggs! All Winter!

13 Eggs a Day from 15 Hens. Miss Wright Tells How.

"Late in October, our 15 hens were not laying at all. I started giving them Don Sung, and in ten days they were quite good. On the eleventh day, they laid 13 eggs and it is wonderful what Don Sung has done for our egg basket through the fall, winter and spring. There never was another time like Don Sung."—Miss Dama Wright, Verona, Ore.

A $1 package of Don Sung lasts 15 hens 30 days. The extra eggs for just a few days paid Miss Wright for her Don Sung. The rest was clear profit.

You may not believe that hens can lay well all winter. Neither did Miss Wright until she accepted our offer. It's open to you—here is how:

Give Don Sung to 15 hens. Then watch results for 30 days. If it doesn't show you a big increase in eggs, if it doesn't pay for itself and pay you good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese egg laying) acts directly on the egg-laying organs and is beneficial in every way. It makes hens healthy and happy. They scratch and sing. Pullets develop earlier. The whole flock lays regularly in any season, in any weather, when eggs are scarce and high. Can you afford to ignore the wonderful reports you are hearing from Don Sung users everywhere? Why not let us show you the same results with your own hens?

It costs nothing to try. All we ask is a chance to prove our claim, at no risk. Get Don Sung from your local dealer or send 50 cents for package by mail. Package 12 eggs, 21, 31, 41, 51, 61, 71, 81, 91, 101, 111, 121, 131, 141, 151, 161, 171, 181, 191, 201, 211, 221, 231, 241, 251, 261, 271, 281, 291, 301, 311, 321, 331, 341, 351, 361, 371, 381, 391, Jess Willard May Be Given Dempsey Bout Offer Is Made by N. Y. Promoter; Jack Kearns Is Agreeable.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—Jack Kearns has definitely promised that Jess Willard will be Jack Dempsey's first opponent, according to Gene Doyle, Willard's manager.

The match is scheduled to take place some time in June, or possibly on July 4.

Terms have not yet been definitely settled, according to Doyle, but no difficulty in that line is expected.

"We came to terms last July with Kearns for a match with Dempsey in October," said Doyle. "We had to wait it out because he did not give Willard time enough to get in condition. If we could come to terms with Kearns in July for an October match, we certainly expect no difficulty in coming to terms with him now for a June match. Nothing will be done toward promoting the match until after the first of the year. At that time we will be glad to consider the offers of Tom O'Rourke, Tex Rickard and others."

Doyle said Willard is now in fair shape, and declared that by March he will be in fine condition and will satisfy the demands of the public in every way.

"Willard has commenced daily workouts," he said. "He won't be in the best of shape gradually and not too late."

Kearns and Dempsey are in Los Angeles with their vaudeville act.

Even Mexico Catches Spirit; Umpire Beaten

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 13.—Stones, bricks and bats were hurled yesterday when spectators at a baseball game between the Mexico City champion team and the Nacionales, Sonora, team, resented an attack on the umpire by Manager Marquez of the Nacionales. Marquez was arrested and the Nacionales players, mostly Americans, were escorted to their hotel by the police.

Marquez objected to the decision on a close play in the tenth inning and struck the umpire, knocking him unconscious. The crowd surged out upon the field and there was a lively melee between the spectators and players. The Nacionales team is touring Mexico on the invitation of Secretary of the Interior Calles.

N. Y. Yankees Are Center of Major Meeting

Change in Ownership Looms As Col. Huston Seeks to Retire.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Developments connected with the major league baseball sessions yesterday centered prominently around the affairs of the New York Yankees, American league champions.

Colonel Jacob Ruppert's formal announcement that he expected within a week to acquire sole ownership of the club by purchasing, for a reported consideration of $1,500,000, the half interest of Colonel L. B. Huston, was followed by authoritative reports that the Yankees had closed a deal with the White Sox to trade Aaron Ward, Bob Meusel and a pitcher to the Westerns for Eddie Collins, veteran second baseman, and Dick Kerr, southpaw pitcher. It was said that official announcement of the trade which has been rumored in diamond circles for some time, would be made at today's opening session of the American league club owners.

Tribune Teams Are Rooting For Old Sol

Plenty of Sunshine Needed For Playing Games Next Sunday.

Old Sol will have to get on the job mightily early for the next few days if it expects to put himself in right with the Little Joe Bushers of the Oakland Tribune Midwinter League. He disappointed them last Sunday and made them put in a day of idleness, and now the little fellows are anxious to resume activities next Sunday. The same program of games as announced for last Sunday will be offered the fans, providing the weather permits. From looks of things on the outside, the weather is going to keep some of the boys from playing. Almost every bush diamond in the county resembles a small lake.

The C. L. Best Tractors, who are running the Del Monte Cafes a close race for the leadership in the Class A American branch, are the boys to beat for the pennant, according to the dope being passed around. There is plenty of truth to the stories, as the Tractors are a well-balanced club, in fact about as nifty an outfit as has represented the cherry town in a league. San Leandro fans are also supporting the Tractors in great style. Next Sunday they will meet the Oakland Natives, No. 50, at San Leandro.

By BOB SHAND.

Jimmy Dundee and Bud Ridley will renew hostilities at the Auditorium tonight where they left off two years ago and there is reason to believe that the boys are just as fast today as they were when they could box here every week and make the customers like the act. Six times the pair clashed in a local ring and every bout had the fans on their feet yelling for a K. O. Neither was able to do that little thing but they belted each other until both were dizzy and the further they went the faster the pace they set. Since their last meeting Ridley has traveled half way around the world and has gained valuable experience. Dundee has stuck around the old home town, with occasional trips to Los Angeles and the Northwest to vary the monotony, but neither has been soaked into submission recently.

Otten Winner Of the Shell Mound Honors

Pistol and Rifle Club Wins Up Big Year With Banquet.

The Shell Mound Pistol and Rifle club celebrated its twenty-first anniversary and also held the annual King shoot prize distribution banquet and turkey shoot last Sunday. At the banquet many interesting speeches were made by war veterans, army and National Guard officers. It was brought out that the government and also the U. S. N. A. were going to foster small arms.

In the coming year the club will hold matches with the Independents and other rifle and pistol clubs.

The club holds its monthly shoot on the first Sunday in every month. Many of the younger members are joining the club at present.

R. A. Heinemann Jr. won the honors in the annual King shoot. The following were the winners on the monthly and yearly shoots:

Card Track Prospects Are Good for 1923

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal. Dec. 13.—One of the best track teams that ever wore the Cardinal is in sight for next spring at Stanford, providing the men here remain in school and are not injured.

Next year the "big meet" with California probably will be held in the Stanford stadium and the Cardinal is hoping to dedicate the new $14,000 stadium track with a sweeping victory over its ancient foe. The track was the last built by the late "Dad" Moulton, beloved Stanford trainer.

Stanford always has been strong in the sprints and has won the 100 yard run and 200 yard dash at the 22nd. Hale won the 100 yard run and 200 yard dash at the 22nd. Hale won the 100 yard run and 200 yard dash at the 22nd. Hale won the 100 yard run and 200 yard dash at the 22nd.

EASTERN SPORT GOSSIP

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (United Press).—Only four pitchers in the National League pitched better ball last season than Senor Adolfo Luque, the Cuban hurler of the Cincinnati Reds. At the same time, only three pitchers pitched worse ball.

Sounds rather contradictory, but it remains a fact under the system of giving the pitchers a double rating.

In average runs allowed per game, which is perhaps the real way to judge ability, Luque was fifth with an average of only 2.31 runs a game.

But the Senor won only thirteen games and lost twenty-three, which from the old games won and lost system, made him twenty-third on the list with an average of .561.

Hard luck, it might be called for the Senor. He is one of several line pitchers who have never taken the spotlight because no teams seem able to get runs for them.

Johnny Coach is a good example of the contrary. Coach is a young teammate of Luque's. He won sixteen out of twenty-five games and finished third on the list. But he was nineteenth on the list in allowing runs.

Ted Kid Lewis, European middleweight champion, successfully defended his title recently by winning a twenty-round decision from Roland Todd.

"Except for Lewis" holding and controlling once or twice with his head, it was a clean, hard-fought contest," one of the London papers said in discussing the bout. "The result was a secret disappointment to Todd, but it might easily have gone the other way if Todd knew how to make use of himself."

It would seem that it was a clean fight, but dirty, and that

Opening Date Is Named in N. Y. Meeting

National League Race Will Start April 17; American To Follow Suit.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The selection of Tuesday, April 17, as the opening date for the 1923 pennant race of the National League was the principal feature of the annual meeting of the senior baseball organizations yesterday. John A. Heydler stated that the National League magnates were unanimously in favor of opening the season a week later than had been the case in recent years.

Weather conditions have proved more favorable for baseball early in October than the fore part of April during recent seasons, according to President Heydler, and it was thought desirable to change the dates to conform.

When asked if this later opening date would also be observed by the American League, Heydler said that he knew of no reason why there should be a difference of opinion on the matter. He stated that at a conference with President B. B. Johnson of the American League, last August, April 17 was fixed upon as the date and that the joint schedule committee of the two leagues so understood the situation.

The greater part of today's session was devoted to routine business, including the president's report, as well as those of the board of directors and the treasurer. The 1922 pennant was officially awarded to the New York club and the team also was congratulated upon winning the world's series. The club owners, who attended the meeting in a body, approved the plan to erect a monument over the grave of Captain Adrian Anson in Chicago. The selection and details of the monument were referred to the board of directors.

Heydler stated "if anything was needed to stabilize the sport then that need was adequately supplied by the recent action of the United States Supreme Court ratifying the legality of the reserve clause and upholding the right to make ineligible those who for any good reason deserve disqualification."

The league will convene again today.

Modified Draft Is Banned at Meeting

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Defeat of a modified draft proposal and several player deals marked the closing session yesterday of the annual meeting of International League club owners.

The proposals designed as an alternative for the regular draft, which has been rejected by the International, as well as four other minor leagues, was made by Walter H. Bangor, president of the Rochester club. It provided that a player who has been sold to a club for two years must be sold to a major league club for a minimum price of $10,000, according to him in demand, and that formal notice is filed by the club or clubs desiring to purchase him.

Vote of five to three.

Dates Named For Handicaps At Tijuana

TIJUANA RACETRACK, Dec. 13.—Of the eight big stakes which have a total value of about $75,000 with their added publicity which will be decided at this meeting, the first one is set for decision January 21, according to announcement made by J. P. Atkin, assistant manager of the Tijuana Jockey Club. These rich fixtures, notably the Cofreito Handicap with $20,000 added money, are certain to attract some of the greatest horses in America. The nominations required to race disclose a brilliant lot of performers.

The following list of dates for the big fixtures are announced:

January 21—Tijuana Handicap. $20,000 added for all ages, one mile and 50 yards.

February 15—Debutante Stakes. $10,000 added, 1922-23, 2-year-olds (yearlings in 1922), 4 1/2 furlongs.

February 25—Speed Handicap. $25,000 added, for all ages, 5 1/2 furlongs.

March 4—Juvenile Stakes. $25,000 added, for two-year-olds (yearlings in 1922), one-half mile.

March 15—Tijuana Derby. $50,000 added, for three-year-olds in 1923, 1 1/4 miles.

$20,000 added, for all ages, 1 1/4 miles.

April 1—Tijuana Futurity. $60,000 added for two-year-olds (yearlings in 1922), 4 1/2 furlongs.

April 5—Tijuana Cup. $50,000 added, for all ages, two miles.

In addition to these fixtures there will be several rich handicaps during the holiday period from December 23 to January 2, including the Christmas and New Year's handicaps.

Washington U Has Large Mat Squad

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 13.—Close to 60 men are working out for the wrestling team of the University of Washington here. Six of the athletes are veterans of last year's squad.

Washington opens its mat season January 27, when the University of Oregon athletes come here for a meet. On February 2 the Oregon Agricultural College sends a team of grapplers to Seattle and on March 3 the Huskies journey to Pullman to meet the Washington State College.

New Trades To Feature Big Meeting

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Possible but not probable developments of another day of baseball's annual talk-around series are the arrival of Eddie Collins and Jake May with the Yankees from Chicago and Vernon, respectively, the transfer of Lee Meadows from the Phils to the Cubs, Zach Wheat from the Dodgers to the Cardinals, Jake Daubert from the Reds to the Bill Hayward Is Awarded a Service Stripe

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 13.—Twenty "service stripes" were on a sweater which was awarded recently to Bill Hayward, veteran trainer and track coach of the University of Oregon here.

The award was made by the University to Hayward in recognition of his long service at the big Eugene school, where he has handled athletes since 1904, turning out ten Northwest championship track teams during that time.

Before Hayward came to the university he was with Albany College of Albany, Ore., and when his team inflicted a decisive defeat on the Eugene team, the university engaged him as an athletic coach and trainer.

Three times Hayward has gone overseas as trainer and coach with the American delegation to the Olympic Games and, in 1919, served as trainer of the Great Mare Island Marine football team which won the intersectional service championship from the Great Lake naval team.

When Hayward first came to Oregon there was no outdoor track but only a long shed for athletes to practice in. Now the Oregon meets and football games are held on splendid grounds named Hayward Field, in honor of the coach.

For years Hayward was coach of the baseball team here, but in recent years has devoted his time to coaching the track teams and leading the football team.

Kirkwood and Hagen to Play At Del Monte

Much speculation is taking place as to the chances of Mortie Dutra and Peter Hay, the Del Monte professionals against Walter Hagen and Joe Kirkwood, when they meet in a thirty-six hole match on the Pebble Beach and Del Monte courses on Sunday, December 24.

A number of people are of the opinion that the local professionals will stand a good chance of beating the famous visitors, owing to their knowledge of the courses.

There is a possibility that a course record will be established in the match. Both Pebble Beach and Del Monte courses are now in tip-top condition. It is figured that the fairways and greens at Pebble Beach are at least 25 per cent better now than they were when the state championship was played in September. The par for the course is 70. The par at Del Monte is 71.

Shy Huntington to Coach Medford Team

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 13.—Say coach, was in Medford, Ore., today, where for a few days he will coach the Medford High school basketball team in preparation for its proposed game with Scott High school of Toledo, Ohio.

Permission was obtained from the Oregon High School Athletic association for Huntington to coach the Medford preps by wire yesterday.

Medford is expected to play the Scott team some time around Christmas or New Year's. The Scott team defeated the champions of New England and is undefeated this year. The Easterners will also like to play Washington High school of Portland and Corvallis High school, it is announced here.

Owen Bush Named Senators' Manager

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Appointment of Owen (Donnie) Bush as manager of the Washington Senators baseball club to succeed Clyde Milan was announced by Clark Griffith, president of the club, over the telephone from New York last night, where he is attending the American league conference.

Take No Chances On Climate—Motto

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 13.—Both West Virginia and Colorado, contestants in the annual football game at the stadium here, will take no chances on San Diego climate, it was announced today. They will arrive in Southern California on December 25.

Workouts and will not miss getting "tazy" in California sunshine at this time of year. This is following the example set last year by Washington and Jefferson at Pasadena.

West Virginia is undefeated this year and has a 3-0 record. The college game, and that by three points, early in the season. Football cruises look for a close contest.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 13.—To make or find a man who can contribute to the basketball team of the University of Washington for the opening of the basketball season after Christmas. Lack of ability in this part of the game cost the team points last season.

Bakersfield Will Play San Diego High

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 13.—San Diego high school resumed training today for the championship game with Bakersfield here on Saturday. The winner will play Berkeley high for the state championship next week.

Battery "C" Wins Fram Y. M. I. 33 18

LIVERMORE, Dec. 13.—The Battery "C" basketball quintet of Livermore decisively defeated the Oakland Y. M. I. at the Armory, 33 to 18.

The game started fast and finished the same way. The Livermore five were never behind and the battery had to fight for every basket.

The Livermore Grammar school basketball team, which played in the best high game ever played in Livermore, 12 to 10. The high school led up to the last few minutes. The Livermore Grammar school quintet has issued a challenge to any Grammar school team in the state.

Piedmont Boy Is Honored by Michigan

Wallace F. Elliott of Piedmont and former high school star here has been appointed swimming manager at the University of Michigan.

According to a telegram received this morning, Elliott was a star athlete at Oakland Technical high and later with the Stanford Freshmen team in 1917. Last season he had charge of intra-mural athletics at Michigan.

O'Donnell to Meet Joe Bell at Vallejo

VALLEJO, Dec. 13.—Alfred O'Donnell and Joe Bell are to appear in the main event at the Airborne rink tomorrow night. Many of the Contra Costa fans are to come here to witness the bout, according to Matchmaker Gus Cline.

Muller-De Groot Named on Eleven

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 13.—The 214 coaches who picked the 1923 All-American football team to appear in the December 15 issue of the Athletic Letter, found a dearth of tackles and a wealth of backfield material, the magazine states.

The coaches picked the following team:

End—Muller, California.
Tackle—Roberts, Center.
Guard—Schwab, Lafayette.
Tackle—Gullen, Brown.
End—Gabel, Michigan.
Quarterback—Elliott, Harvard.
Half—Kaw, Cornell.
Half—Kipke, Michigan.
Fullback—Locke, Iowa.

PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE WAS SAVED BY ACTION OF CALIFORNIA AT THE LAST MEETING

CALIFORNIA'S ACTION SAVED CONFERENCE IN MEETING AT SEATTLE

Blue and Gold Coach Made Sacrifice in Agreeing to Play U. S. C. in South in Interests of Better Competition.

By DOUG. MONTELL.

California faced a greater problem than the mere drawing of schedule at the recent Coast Conference meeting at Seattle, according to Coach Andy Smith yesterday upon his return from the Northwest. Not only was California forced to make a sacrifice in the form of deviating from what was considered to be the ideal schedule for 1923 but every other institution in the Conference was called upon to make some sacrifice or other according to Andy Smith.

It appeared at the start of the meeting in the north as though the good ship Conference was heading for the rocks and the California delegates are firmly convinced that had the respective institutions of the body held fast to their intended policies of thinking only for "number one" the organization might have been wrecked.

As matters stood at the conclusion of the meeting, however, perfect harmony prevailed and it now appears as though the Coast Conference would be stronger and better on account of the action taken by several colleges, including California and U. S. C., which prevented a split over trifling matters of schedule difficulties. Things are now in such shape that at the 1923 meeting of the conference the adjustment of schedules for the future will be put on a permanent basis involving Stanford, California, Washington and U. S. C.

California Made A Big Sacrifice

It was California's duty to make a sacrifice at the Coast Conference meeting in the interests of better competition on the Pacific coast," said Andy Smith yesterday when questioned about the change that sent the U. S. C.-California game to Los Angeles for the second year in succession. "I am not the only one to consider her own desires, or had she insisted upon taking what she had coming to her, leaving all else out of the question, the U. S. C.-California game could have been played at Berkeley. But there were others to be considered in the matter."

"Washington had to be satisfied, the Oregon colleges had to be satisfied, Stanford could not be ordered to do this or that, neither could U. S. C. It was, therefore, necessary that a compromise be made and as a result the California team is called upon to make more sacrifice than the south. After next season things will be arranged so that Stanford will go north one year, California the next, no two trips in the same year for either."

Stanford Unable To Take Long Trip

As matters stood at the opening of the meeting Stanford was supposed to go to Washington this next year. But the Stanford delegates were unable to accept the long trip. After next season things will be arranged so that Stanford will go north one year, California the next, no two trips in the same year for either.

It therefore fell to California's lot to make another trip south as well as a trip north. No outside factors entered into the arrangement. It was merely done to save the conference and promote better feeling among all the colleges and to encourage competition.

Competition Will Be Better On Coast

"I honestly feel that there will be better competition on the coast next year than ever before," continued Andy Smith. "Every team in the conference has four conference games, the majority having five."

"Both Stanford and California play important games in the Northwest for the big game. The Northwest will see three California teams in action next year instead of one. "But no team has the best of worst of the schedule. Consider U. S. C., having to make a trip to Seattle to play Washington, October 20, and then returning to Stanford to play Stanford, October 27—two weeks on the road and two hard games."

The California coach continued at length to show that in every

PENN STATE PLEASED TO MEET THE TROJANS

College Is Quite an Ancient Institution, Having Been Founded in 1855.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., DEC. 12.—While Penn State football players had no particular interest in the selection of any coast team to represent the west in the INTERSECTIONAL GAME AT PASADENA ON NEW YEAR'S DAY, GENERAL SATISFACTION HAS BEEN EXPRESSED OVER THE CHOICE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, AS IT IS FELT THAT THE TROJANS HAVE A GREAT TEAM AND WILL BE A MOST FORMIDABLE FOE AT THE TOURNEY OF ROSES CONTEST.

A brief word about Penn State might be of interest to California fans who are apt to confuse the institution with the University of Pennsylvania, which is at Philadelphia. The institution that will meet the Trojans and whose team is coached by Hugo Bezdek, who is the Pennsylvania State College, the land-grant institution of Pennsylvania, located at State College in Center county, near the exact geographical center of the state. Penn State was founded in 1855 and at the present time boasts of an enrollment of 3900 men and 330 women students. For the past four years the college has been forced to turn away an average of 1000 qualified applicants a year because of lack of the necessary accommodations and at the present time a financial campaign is being conducted among alumni and friends of the institution to raise a $2,000,000 fund for the erection of badly needed health and welfare buildings.

A LARGE COLLEGE. With one exception, Penn State is the largest institution in the world that is called a college, comprising schools of engineering, agriculture, mining, natural science and liberal arts, together with departments of home economics, military science and physical education. There is also a graduate school. Work even is being carried on at a project now on foot to have the institution recognized as the Pennsylvania State University. A safe and sane athletic policy is enforced at Penn State under the supervision of Hugo Bezdek, who is director of athletics and head of the department of physical education. The one-year residence rule and the migratory rule are both strictly enforced while a faculty athletic committee maintains rigid scholastic requirements for members of the various athletic teams. In this connection it should be mentioned that Penn State was able to accept the invitation to play at Pasadena only because the Christmas holidays make the trip possible without missing more than two or three days of classes.

HAS FRESHMEN TEAMS. Penn State maintains freshmen teams in every line of sport with special coaches and during the past fall had one of the best yearling football teams in history.

Athletic officials have offered to turn Penn State's share of the proceeds of the Pasadena game into the $2,000,000 building fund now being raised by the college. The Penn State football party of 25 players will leave here on December 13 via Chicago, and will arrive at Pasadena in time for Christmas, according to present plans. The return trip will be made through San Francisco.

Yankees Alumni Holding Meeting

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The Yankees Managers' Alumni Association is holding daily informal reunions in Peacock Alley of the Waldorf Astoria, in connection with the annual meetings of the major baseball leagues, discussing baseball, hopes of other years and the acquisition of a $9,000,000 property by Colonel Jacob Ruppert.

The alumni are: Clark Griffith,

Wolverton, 12; Frank Chance, 14, and "Wild Bill" Donovan, 17. An absentee is Hal Chase.

Miller Huggins, who brought two Yankee pennants to the metropolis, does not expect to join the association for some time.

Buckingham Is Not Ousted as S. Clara Coach

Frank Sommers, U. S. Marines Mentor, Understood To Be Seeking Berth.

SANTA CLARA, Dec. 12.—Despite newspaper reports and vague whispered rumors to the contrary, H. G. Buckingham has not been discharged as football coach at the University of Santa Clara. As in many cases where a team has lost its "big game," rumors become rife that the coach is to blame and that a new coach is to be obtained, but to date there has been no move to displace Buckingham at the Mission College. His contract has expired, and the matter of obtaining a new contract is in the hands of the Alumni Board which engineered the renewal of athletics with St. Mary's. Any change, of necessity, would come from them, and up to the present they have been exceedingly discreet as to who is to handle the football reins next year at Santa Clara.

SOMMERS MAY BE MAN

It is understood that Frank Sommers, who has been coaching the Mare Island Marines is after the job. Sommers would make a good coach but whether he would have any more success than Buckingham would remain to be seen. Two years ago Buckingham took over the helm at Santa Clara and had a flock of youngsters to practice upon, many of whom had never held a football before. His only prospects were a whole of a good preparatory team and a few members of the 1920 team which had been disrupted the year before.

Of these, Logan, Kerchhoff, Noll and Ferraro were all that remained. But Buckingham, in 1921, turned out a team which did not lose a game, although playing against second rate teams. This year the team beat the Southern western champions, Arizona, and held Nevada to a 7-7 tie, and made very creditable showings against the other teams which it played.

There are many prominent alumni who feel that the varsity should have whipped Saint Mary's by a decisive score, and feel that Buckingham is to blame, but the members of the team say different, their excuse being that the loss of three of their stars coupled with the fact that they had an "off day" lost the game, and attribute the loss to those facts only. Should the Alumni Board see fit to displace Buckingham, his successor will have to go some to beat Buckingham's record. Buckingham leaves for Memphis, Tenn., Saturday, to spend the winter, and whether he comes back or not will not be learned until the board acts, which will not be for a couple of months yet.

At the same time the Ambrose Tailors widened the gap by losing the game, and attribute the loss to those facts only. In the other sets of the night the Merchant Calculators beat the Key System, while the Union Ice Company men pulled the unexpected and won three from the Shoe Clerks' Union. The Ice Men had a 10-0 single game, which was high for the night.

Best single games were turned in by Rizzo at 246 and Trebilcock at 241, while the high series went to the former at 637, who was closely followed by the latter at 621.

Joe Benkosky is leading the other contestants in the Turkey shoot at the Maryland academy with a score of 622 for the series. Second honors are held by L. G. Parker with 617, while the 611 of Joe Whetstone is next best for the three prizes put up by Jack Reall.

At the bowling auditorium, Otto Roskie has high single at 264 for the Christmas prize there, while Wainwright is next with a score in the 240s. The leader at the 24th bench street house turned in a 278 while at practice the other night—but it does not mean anything in the tourney.

A duck pin match of much interest to the wackies of the small wood is the six-game match arranged between teams representing Beam's Center and McDonough's auditorium alleys. Play will be Saturday night.

Representing the Center will be Hughes, Harry Smith, Rossi, Ogden and Nelson, while McDonough, Roskie, Major, Brandtjen and Bickell, the last named recently from the east, will be in line for the auditorium.

A "turkey shoot" will be rescheduled at Beam's Center on Friday evening and is open to any East-bay man who cares to try his luck. Three-game series will be rolled and the bowler turning in the greatest number of pins will get the "food."

Half a score of bowlers have been lined up by W. M. Beam, owner of the State Center slips, to participate in the Sweepstakes event to be held at the Eleventh street house on Sunday afternoon. Any Eastbay bowler is privileged to enter the event, which will be rolled on four alleys, starting at 2 p. m., and will consist of three games, greatest number of pins to take the prize.

Some of those already entered are Ogden, Smith, Roskie, Reaner and O'Toole, all well-known local pin maulers.

West Virginia Not To Come to Stanford

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 12.—Athletic Director H. A. Stansbury of West Virginia, whose football team will play Gonzaga University here Christmas day, telegraphed here last night that he had been forced to decline an offer of Andy Kerr, head coach at Stanford, for the use of the stadium, for the use of the team would come straight to San Diego, leaving Morgantown, W. Va., next Tuesday, and probably arriving here early December 22.

Chicago Will Bid for 1928 Olympic Games

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—(United Press.)—Chicago started today to bring the 1928 Olympic games to the Windy City.

The first step must be the selection of the general public to keen interest in track and field athletics, "big ten" conference athletic directors believed.

In an effort to stimulate this interest, every effort is to be made to bring the 1923 A. A. U. track and field meet to Chicago, held on the third Saturday in June.

Although big ten officials recently recommended that western conference athletes remain out of the games, it was understood they will probably reconsider.

Additional meets will also be planned to prepare the public for the great event.

Trojans Lose Star Halfback For Next Year

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—University of Southern California students are wondering who will fill the shoes of Roy ("Ironside") Baker, star halfback of the football team, who was declared ineligible for next season by the Pacific Coast Conference.

Baker played two years for the University of Santa Clara before coming to the local school, where he played only this season. Although one of his years at Santa Clara he played as a prep, it counted as a season of varsity football.

John Milton, end, may not return next season, although he will be eligible. Milton played in 1921 and 1922, but was injured and did not play in 1923.

Baker and Milton were the Trojan stars in the game against California. Baker was the star of the game, and was the principal ground gainer for U. S. C., completing two runs which netted 35 yards each. Milton was in every play and smashed many Bear end runs.

However, Coach Elmer C. ("Gloomy Gus") Henderson says he has no time to worry about next season's team now, with the contest against the Penn State eleven at Pasadena New Year's Day only two and a half weeks away. In this contest Baker will play his last college football game.

Meanwhile, Coach Henderson plans to get the squad in the best possible condition. Practice yesterday was confined to light signal practice and was held in the rain on a sloppy field.

sweaters were presented with the same by retiring Captain Kerchhoff, and the following were the recipients:

Graham Vossell, tackle, Robert Duff, tackle, John A. Logan, end, Porter T. Kerchhoff, end, John T. Lewis, guard, George T. Foster, guard, George B. Noll, guard, Henry J. Miller, center, Vee Vowell, center, Otto Schwil, halfback, Michael G. Noonan, quarterback, Philip G. Fawke, fullback, Thomas P. F. Noonan, halfback, Angelo V. Rianola, halfback, Ernest D. DeJolia, halfback.

Tex Rickard Counting on Yankee Park

Colonel Jacob Ruppert Understood to Favor Boxing Arrangement.

By HENRY L. FARRELL. United Press Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Changes in the control of the New York Yankees not only remains the talk of big baseball, but it began to be looked upon as a big factor in New York boxing today.

With Colonel Jacob Ruppert as sole owner of the club and its properties, it means practically that Tex Rickard will conduct whatever boxing is staged in the new million-dollar Yankee stadium.

Rickard as much as said today, that Ruppert had given him to understand some time ago that if the club decided to permit the use of the stadium for boxing, that he was to be in charge.

Colonel Huston, retiring half owner of the club, was said to be in favor of granting the permit to a syndicate composed of several of his personal friends.

Rickard at least is proceeding along the line that he will get the privilege at the new park and he is looking for at least two big matches for next summer.

In line with the wishes of Colonel Ruppert, Rickard said no weekly boxing exhibitions would be conducted on the grounds. Only a few of the biggest bouts—possibly two and no more—will be arranged.

Rickard said he is figuring on another Leonard-Tender fight and one in which Jack Dempsey will be one of the principals. He let it be known that he is not considering Harry Wills as the opponent of the champion.

He denied that he has any kind of a contract or agreement with Dempsey, but he has no doubt that he can come to terms easily with the champion when he gets a good proposition for him.

Overall Will Not Join Frank Chance

VISALIA, Cal., Dec. 12.—Orval Overall last night denied a report from Boston which credited him with having agreed to join Frank Chance in managing the Red Sox next year.

"It's news to me entirely," said Overall. "This is the first I've ever heard of it." He added that he would be interested in loan of any proposition from the Red Sox, but expressed the belief that his banking and orchard interests in Tulare county would prevent him from entering baseball in any capacity.

Chicago Is Given Women's Title Play

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—The women's western golf championship will be played over the course of the Ex-moer Country Club in Chicago next summer, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. J. W. Douglas, vice president of the Women's Western Golf Association. The date of the event is tentatively set for August 26th.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT NOT CHOSEN

Successor For Dr. Barrows Is Discussed, But Selection Delayed; Campbell of Lick Observatory Is On the List

Though the presidential situation of the University of California was discussed for two hours yesterday by the regents in executive session at the California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco, no decision was reached. Secretary Robert G. Sprout announced. Further discussion regarding candidates to take the place of President David P. Barrows was deferred until the next meeting after the New Year. Among those prominently mentioned in university circles for the position is Dr. W. W. Campbell, director of Lick Observatory, but it could not be learned whether Dr. Campbell's candidacy was discussed at the regents' meeting.

In the course of the transaction of routine business Dr. Barrows told the regents that the university library has been presented by a donor who wishes to remain incognito with its oldest volume. It is a copy of a Latin work published in 1477 at Padua, Italy.

It was also announced that cash gifts, totaling $2500, had been received, the donors being the Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Native Sons of the Golden West, the Hillside Club of Berkeley, Wallace M. Alexander, John A. Britton and W. W. Chisholm. The gifts are toward various scholarships and memorial funds and an alumnus donated $1000 in support of a special research fund of the medical school.

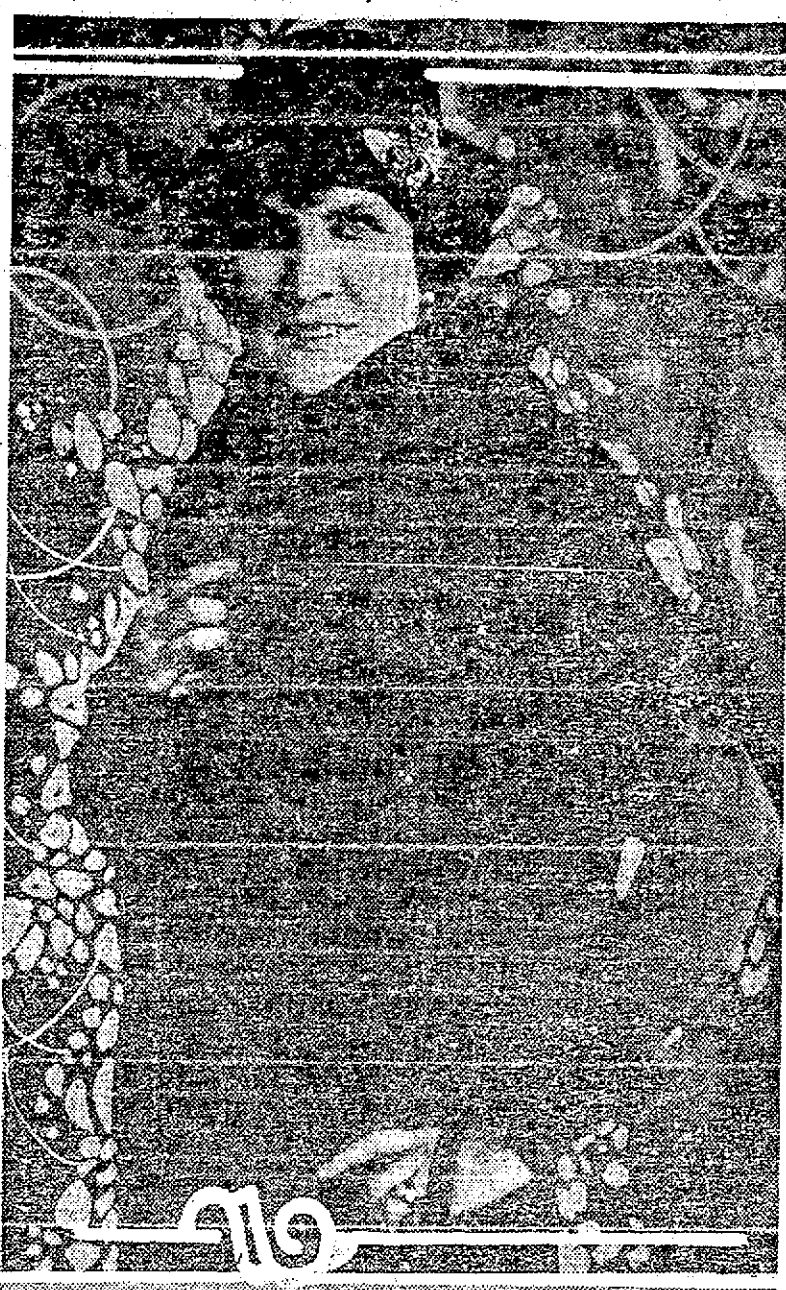

Other gifts presented to the university include: One hundred and forty-one articles of clothing and bedding for the university hospital, donated by the San Francisco Needle Work Guild, and for the Museum of Paleontology, a rock containing fossils from Nevada and specimens of fossil whale, fossil mountain sheep and a fossil elephant's tooth from Alaska.

Dr. Barrows also recommended a number of faculty appointments. Dr. Ivan M. Linforth, professor of Greek, was named assistant dean of the faculties by the regents. Dr. Linforth is a graduate of the university and has been continuously associated with it since 1903.

Other appointments include that of L. H. Duschak as lecturer in metallurgy, Mrs. Mary T. Paine as associate in mathematics, B. L. Freeland as assistant in medicine, B. L. Haglund as assistant in agricultural extension, L. L. Rothschild, assistant Roentgenologist, and H. P. Whalman, assistant in biochemistry.

Wears Columbia's Colors

MRS. GLENN WOODS will impersonate America in the Municipal Christmas pageant on Sunday afternoon and Monday night in the Auditorium. She will render a solo number.

Civic Christmas Pageant to Be Given First Time Sunday

Christmas as little children interpret it; Christmas as the nations of the world observe it; Christmas as it had origin in the little town of Bethlehem, will be portrayed in the gorgeous pageant which will be presented by the Oakland Recreation department in the Municipal Auditorium on Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3 p. m. The production will be repeated on Monday night. More than 3000 dancers, singers and foreign-born residents of the city will participate in the great cast, which is being directed by Mrs. Emeline A. Hollington, assisted by Miss Louise Jorgensen and Elbert F. Cowan. The municipal Christmas pageant is the gift of the recreation department to the citizens of Oakland. The arena of the auditorium will be used for the gigantic stage. The spectators will occupy the galleries.

Edwin Stearns, as Father Christmas, and Fred Le Ballister, as Santa Claus, will have the principal roles in the opening episode. Great groups of children representing the season's decorations will frolic and dance, bringing in the 100 small Christmas trees and making them ready for the coming of Kris Kringle. Reindeer will usher in Santa Claus and his wonderful pack of animated toys. Colorful dances will be introduced by children from the city's playgrounds. Mrs. Glenn Woods will represent "America" in the second episode, which will present typical customs observed by the nations of the world whose sons and daughters make Oakland their home.

Caro Roma, daughter of an Oakland pioneer and widely known composer, will be honored in the pageant, Mrs. Woods having chosen "Ring Out, Sweet Bells of Peace," for her solo number.

Westminster Chimes will be introduced by the Sons and Daughters of St. George, representing England. Edmund Feret, on behalf of the French colony, will render "La Marseillaise." Other nations which will be represented are Sweden, Jugo Slavia, China, Japan, Belgium, Wales.

Before the Nativity Scene, in which Miss Margaret King will impersonate Mary, 300 little girls between the ages of 2 and 5, garbed as an angel choir, will bring the pageant to a solemn close in the carol, "Silent Night." They will be led by Miss Louise Jorgensen representing the "Spirit of Christmas."

The great trees which will fill the niches on the northern exterior of the auditorium will be placed and decorated this week.

CLUB FIGHT FACTIONS AT CITY MEET

With both warring factions of the Central Oakland Improvement Club drawn up in battle array in the city council chambers today, the council postponed until January 4 the formal hearing of the case of the Oakland Paving Company's new quarry and asphalt plant in North Oakland, against which a protest has been lodged.

One of the protesters was lodged by the Highland Terrace Improvement Club, represented by Attorney John C. Scott, who is also president of the Central Oakland Improvement Club. Scott was recently charged with "aiding in the formation of a rival organization to the Central Oakland Improvement Club," by Mrs. May Samuels, secretary of the latter organization, who admitted she used belittling methods Monday night in ousting Scott from the club.

Mrs. Samuels and Scott were present, at the heads of big delegations.

BUSINESS TO PLEAD NEW POSTOFFICE

George Sheldon will appear before the congressional building committee in Washington next month to urge the construction of a new and adequate postoffice for Oakland as the personal representative of the Merchants' Exchange and the Up-town Association, according to announcements made last night at a meeting of the Merchants' Exchange. The matter was brought to the attention of the Exchange in a letter from Congressman MacLafferty, who explained that the committee on public buildings would meet in Washington right after the first of the year for the purpose of making recommendations to congress for building appropriations.

MacLafferty explained in his letter that he would welcome the assistance of a representative from the Oakland commercial bodies when he asked for an appropriation for a new postoffice. It was explained at this time that Sheldon, who has been active in urging the

Oakland Plea for Auto Fee Share Is Opposed

Strenuous opposition to the Oakland project for a new adjustment of state motor vehicle department money was met yesterday at Sacramento by the Oakland delegation, according to the commissioners and other officials who returned today from the Sacramento conference.

Oakland asks that licenses and fines collected in Oakland should be partially turned into the city treasury to pay for the maintenance of main-highway streets within the city limits. Oakland contends that all Oakland money now goes to the county and the state, to be spent on highways which are always outside the city limits. Yet, Oakland argues, such streets as East Fourteenth and San Pablo are really parts of the state highway, and the wear and tear on those costly streets is largely caused by "through traffic."

Oakland's campaign at Sacramento is backed by many other cities, but it is admitted that "an opposition is organizing."

According to Commissioners Frank Colbourn and Harold Weber, secretary to the mayor, the boards of supervisors of the various counties oppose the plan, fearing they will lose funds now used for county roads. Various automobile and trucking concerns are also in opposition, according to the officials, and many other interests are lining up for the fray.

"It looks like a battle ahead," assert Oakland's officials.

The city attorney of Sacramento is guarding Oakland's interests during the interim.

ROCK RIDGE FOLK OFFER TO BUY PARK

Residents of the Rock Ridge district, pleading for the future beautification of upper Broadway by a little park at the end of that street, yesterday sent the Board of Park Directors a request that a tract be purchased and offered to pay the entire cost themselves by the "assessment district" plan.

The board also authorized the drawing of final plans for the completion of the Edoff band-stand at Lakeside Park, for which the city council recently appropriated $10,000.

HAIR GROWS ONE-SIXTIETH OF AN INCH A DAY—Claire Windsor, leading lady for Goldwyn, finds that her hair, which is being permitted to evolve from its bobbed state to conform to the latest conception of "woman's crowning glory," is behaving strictly according to rule. Six inches a year is the generally accepted theory as to the rate at which the hair grows. That makes half an inch a month. Claire finds that her hair has grown seven-sixtieths of an inch since she measured it one week ago.

What Dorothy Dix Says

HUSBAND'S MAGNA CHARTA.
Three down-trodden married men have filed a petition in the supreme court of New York asking for a charter establishing a bill of rights for husbands. And much good it will do them even if they get their Magna Charta, for matrimony is under the jurisdiction of no court save Cupid's court, and the rights that husband or wife do get by subduing they cannot get by process of law.

You might enjoin a nagging woman from nagging a million times, and she would still go on nagging. You might foreclose your first mortgage on the affections of a flirtatious husband, but you would never get the goods. You might swear out a hundred peace warrants against your husband or wife and yet have to live in a house that was in a perpetual brawl.

The long arm of the law is not long enough to reach into the privacy of the home, nor is it powerful enough to protect a husband and wife from each other, and whether a married man is henpecked or the head of the household depends upon the kind of a woman he married, and his own abilities as a diplomat. Also whether a woman is treated by her husband as a peer or conqueror or a slave depends upon the kind of a man she married and her own fineness.

NO JUSTICE IN IT.
Neither one nor what is due to the other in a divorce is justice. It is all privilege.

Nevertheless, both the party of the first part and the party of the second part have rights which said party of the second part, and said party of the first part, are in honor bound to respect.

Among the things that man has a right to demand of his wife are:

1. That she shall go fifty-fifty with him in the matrimonial partnership. She shall be a working partner, willing to do her share to make the firm a success instead of expecting her husband to bear all of the burdens, and make all of the sacrifices, and do all of the labor, while she reserves to herself the privilege of wasting the money he earns by his hard toil.

2. He has a right to demand that his wife shall do her part in making a comfortable home. That is part of the duty of matrimony, and the woman who doesn't do it is just as much a quitter and a slacker as the man who is too lazy and shiftless to support his family.

A CAUSE FOR DIVORCE.
An untidy house, feeding a man out of paper bags and tin cans, and neglecting to put clean towels in the bathroom, ought to be an universally recognized cause for divorce. Moreover, any man who is married to a wife who drags him around to boarding houses and hotels to live should have a right to return her to her parents on the ground that they have grossly tricked him, and forced a counterfeit article of wife on him.

3. A man has a right to demand that his wife shall give as much of her time and attention to her home as she does to bridge, and clubs, and cause, and that she shall sew as much for him as she does for the starving Armenians.

4. A man has a right to demand that his wife shall live within his income instead of trying to keep up with the Jones. No man should have to spend his life saving up pay for the reckless extravagance of a woman who is determined to have the things she wants whether she can afford them or not.

HIS PERSONAL LIBERTY.
5. A man has a right to demand a reasonable measure of personal liberty. Even a husband is entitled to his own evening of a week, and to go where he pleases and come home when he pleases.

6. A man has a right to demand that he be put through the third degree by his wife. No matter how crazy a man loves his wife, or how crazy she is about him, there are times when he needs masculine companionship and diversion, and he has a right to have where he isn't tagged by his womenkind.

Also a man has a right to eat what he pleases, and to wear what he pleases, and to go to his own church instead of his wife's church, and have his hair cut according to his own idea of manly beauty.

7. A man has a right to retain his old friends after he is married, and to follow his old habits, so long as they do not interfere with his domestic duties. He has likewise a right to invite people to the house that his money sustains, and to demand that his family shall have an occasional inning at the best bedroom, instead of it being the perpetual camping ground of his wife's many and friends.

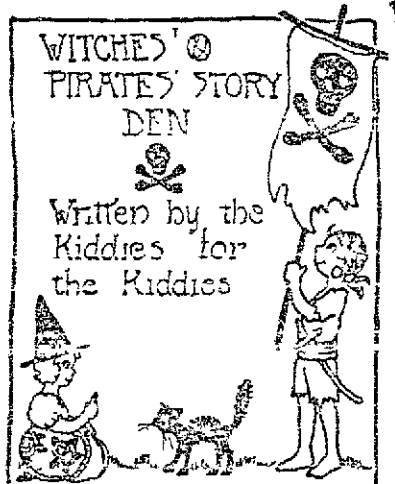

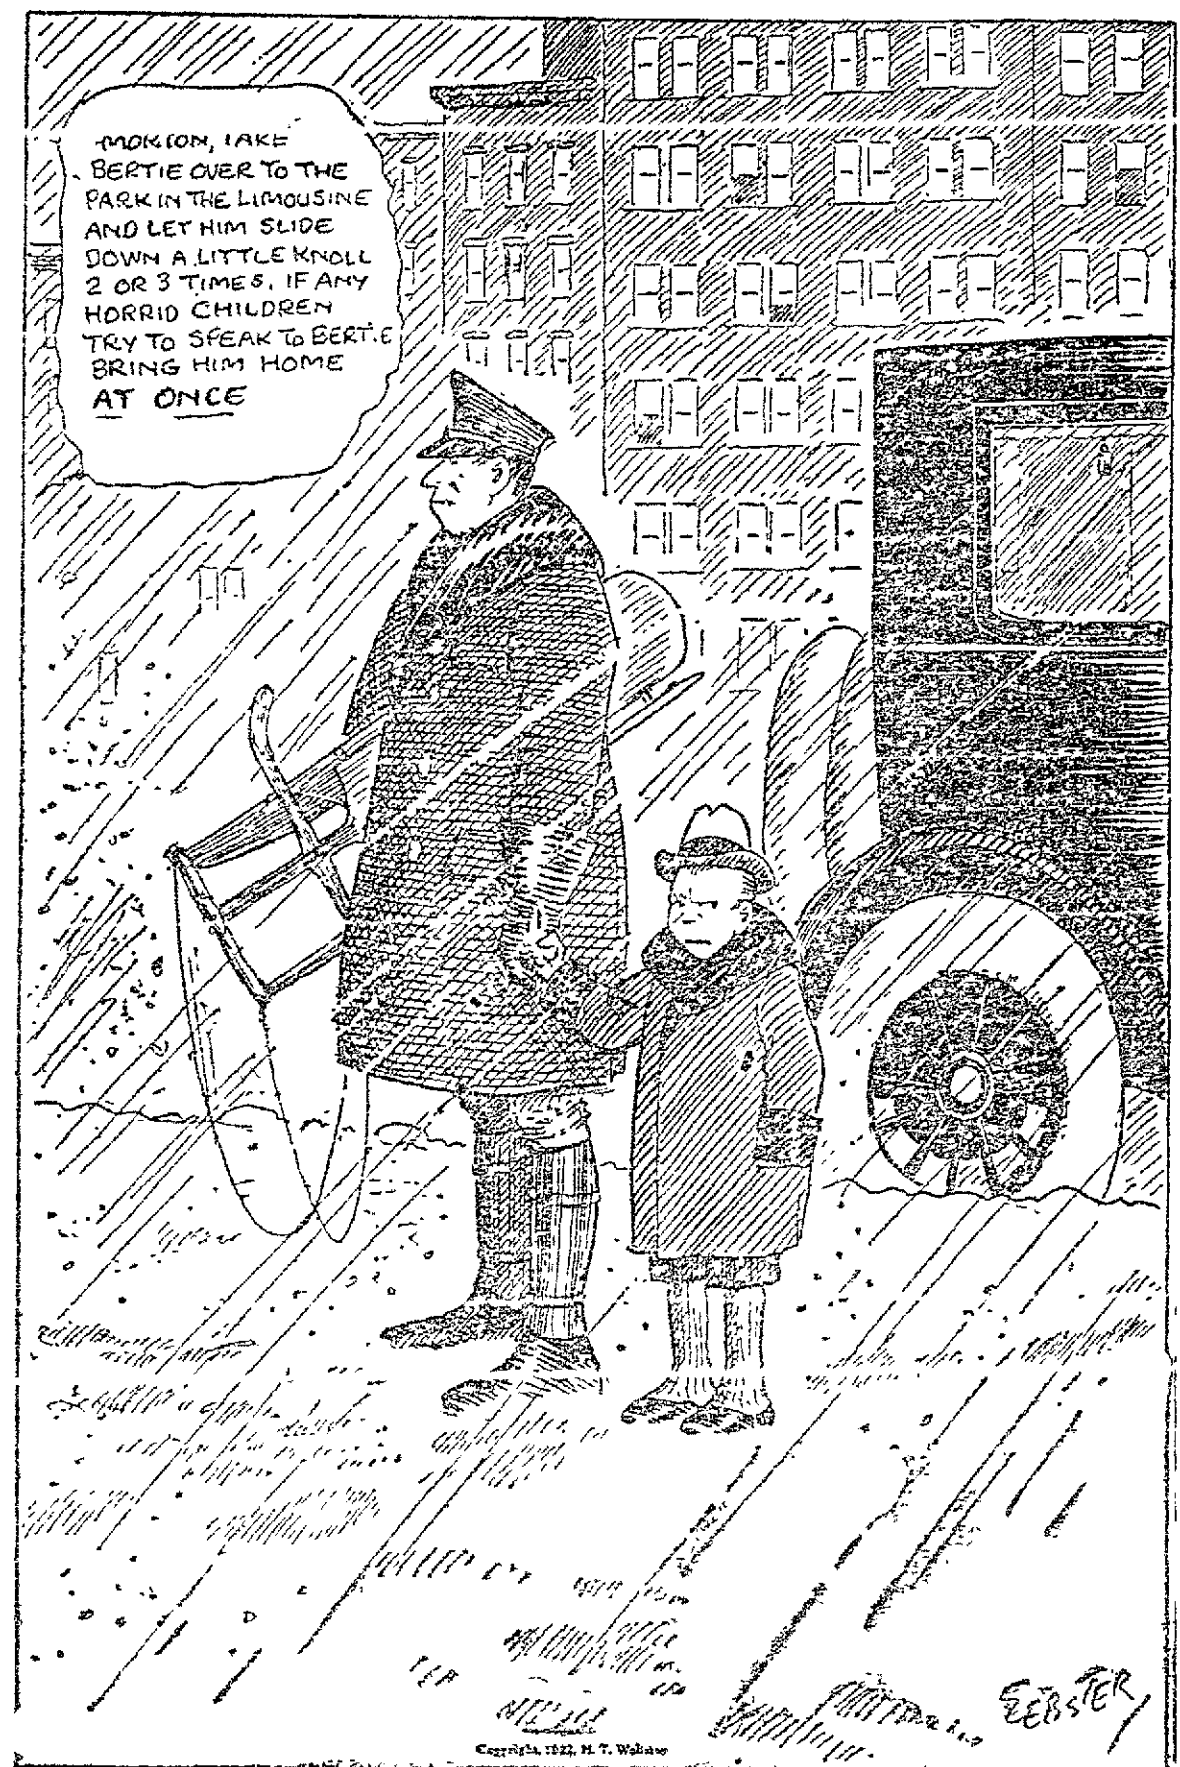

8. A man has a right to have a small room and one close in the home, that shall be his very own, and in which he can keep his things as he likes them. This room shall be furnished according to his own taste, and in it he shall have the privilege of indulging in his hobbies.

Of course, not many married men will ever exercise these rights, and those that do not enjoy them will never get them by law. They will get them by following their wives, and giving them their rights as privileges.

THE REUNION OF TWO FRIENDS.

Jane and May were two chums, but just lately Jane would not speak to May when she saw her or even looked at her when she passed by.

May had too much pride to ask Jane to make up or why she was snubbed by her.

This went on for a long time till one day Alice, another one of Jane's chums, said, "Jane, do you know May is very sick."

"I don't care," was the reply. "Why Jane, what do you mean by that?"

"Why not now?" Alice asked. "That's my business," was the reply.

"Well then don't make up with her and you'll feel sorry if May should die and you still mean at her," Alice said and then went away.

Later in the afternoon Jane went to May's house. May's mother came to the door.

"I see you," was the answer. "I suppose so," was the answer. Jane went in and May was sitting up in bed.

She was surprised to see Jane there, but they soon became friends again.

"I don't ask her why she was snubbed by me," Jane thought. May thought, but since she made up I don't care.

YOUR MIRROR.

No woman travels far without one, and no man should.

A mirror serves as a detective of the grime that soils and defects that should be removed.

A mirror serves as a monitor as well. For if a child's face is prophetic, then an adult's face is history. By forty the invisible sculptor has chiseled character lines which make the mirror a judgment seat.

Most of us need to look at something that gives us back no flattery, but a reflector of the inner man as is, a revealer of the heart.

A mirror of superlative value is a good person.

We measure ourselves by scrawny, deflated, low-grade, flaccid specimens of humanity, and we congratulate ourselves on our superiority.

No wonder people are self-deceived. They take the false judgments, the superficial conceits and the flattery of world mirrors, and that is all they look for.

Why measure our life by mediocre folk or by the man who is better than we?

There are experts in the game of life, people who have mastered the fine points of creative crypt.

Emerson said, "I cannot look on superior achievement without a kindling ambition."

Which mirror do we use?

The Cause of a Full Stomach.

N. J. Dillard, a California insurance man, used to run a country paper down South. He gave a tramp printer a job once on condition that the printer take his pay orders for meals at a nearby oyster-parlor whose owner advertised with Dillard.

For a solid week the printer stuck to it, making his meals off oysters—raw, fried, stewed and broiled—but only oysters. On Saturday night he came from the composing room to the business office and hailed Dillard.

"Boss," he said, "I like this job and I've always been mighty fond of oysters. At one time in my life I thought I never would get enough oysters to eat. But now, with this some way for you to get a ham-and-eggs place to advertise in your paper?"

SYNOPSIS.
Alexander Quist, Piedmont millionaire, is found dead in his study from acid poisoning. Queen Quist, his pretty daughter, Napoleon Knott, detective; Miss Amick, the housekeeper, and others are suspected.
Queen escapes from the city jail and is found by Speed on board a mystery ship with her mother, Mrs. Quist. Both are under the influence of Napoleon Knott. Knott, Madam Gura reveals his scheme for getting control of the Quist millions and proposes that Speed kill the Swami. Knott's young assistant, Speed, who is disguised as Reggie Montgomery, ex-convict, reads in newspaper of Reggie's death and is in danger of being discovered.
Speed enlists Queen in a conspiracy to prevent Knott from discovering about the Quist's death. Speed, with Queen and her mother, witnesses some subtle writings and manifestations according Knott of the Quist murder, which Speed is unable to understand or explain.
Alexander Quist's spirit writes Mrs. Quist, "Bring her to my chamber in the Eastbay and to turn over to him $500,000 in bonds."
Speed and Queen, left alone on the boat, become very chummy. Speed reveals how Knott located Queen and tells her of the Swami's death. Speed, with Queen and her mother, witnesses some subtle writings and manifestations according Knott of the Quist murder, which Speed is unable to understand or explain.
Inspector O'Rourke of New York arrives and tells Mrs. Quist that her husband was a prisoner. Just at this point a shadowy man informs the inspector that he has located the Hindu who had been harbored in the Eastbay. He is holding Speed and Queen under arrest on board the ship. Toadies arrive and they lay a plot to trap the Swami.

CHAPTER 39. THE SHOW DOWN.

Queen rose to her feet, moved close to Speed and caught at his arm. The athlete could feel her trembling.

A crunching sound above their heads told them that someone was walking over the deck overhead.

"This would be the Swami, Mrs. Quist and Mrs. Snoop."

Speed anticipated some fast action. The Swami would know now that he had been betrayed. He would be forced to pay this time that the Count was dead and that the man whom he had harbored was an impostor, a spy.

A form darkened the doorway. Behind the stooped, black clad, slow moving figure of Mrs. Quist loomed the heavy bulk of the Hindoo.

The Swami came into the seance chambers, followed by Mrs. Snoop.

He showed no surprise at the sight of Napoleon Knott.

"This is an unexpected pleasure," said the Swami. "You have the advantage of me."

"Mr. Napoleon Knott—the Swami, Madam Gura," introduced Speed.

Very carefully the Hindu made a motion with his right hand into the folds of his garment, but Toadies anticipated the move and frustrated it by thrusting the muzzle of a large calibre revolver against his body.

The East Indian elevated his hands with starchy and made no response to the move, but Toadies anticipated the move and frustrated it by thrusting the muzzle of a large calibre revolver against his body.

"We down" commanded Speed sharply. The big fellow slumped into a chair. The athlete gave Mrs. Snoop a sharp look and she also seated herself.

Toadies reached up, grasped the turban and pulled it off. The Hindu had disappeared and in his place was Dr. Rubal Ottoman.

"Well Doc, summon your spook friends to your assistance," bawled Toadies.

"Have you deceived us like this?" Mrs. Quist tried to speak, but only succeeded in opening her mouth repeatedly with a gurgling sound.

"Do you lose faith so easily?" reproached the fakir. "Have you not seen the miracles performed, and yet would you turn to me the Judas cheek. I was forced to assume a disguise to escape persecution."

"We will darken the room and have a little materializing seance of our own for the benefit of the doctor," suggested Toadies.

"This is a sacrilege," shouted Ottoman. "An outrage."

Toadies thrust his thumbs into his vest and grinned at a disconcerted Napoleon Knott.

Toadies thrust his gun against the Swami's body.

another on the shoulder and trying to console her over her disillusionment.

"Is that true, Mrs. Quist?" he asked.

"Yes," she said. "I have, but I don't care anything about that. My hopes are shattered. I thought, I had talked to my husband. He comforted me. Never did I experience such joy. And now it is all over. I have nothing to live for."

Toadies hastened to change the subject. The old lady was maudlin.

"Now for a few ghosts. All ready you spooks. Now Mr. Swami, you see I have nothing up my sleeve. There are no spooks in my pocket or in my hat. But nevertheless I will surprise you."

"The hand is quicker than the eye."

The room was plunged into darkness. Almost instantly a tiny ball of light appeared and grew into the form of Alexander Quist.

The thing had happened so quickly that the uninitiated present gave voice to startled exclamations. Mrs. Quist moved toward the unhappy Swami and towered over him, pointing downward at the "ghost" with an accusing finger.

"This man killed me," moaned the spirit.

"It's a fake," cried Ottoman.

The lights were turned on revealing Speed with the luminous robes, holding the plaster of paris mask of Quist's face and head.

"We're following your own well-known methods," laughed Toadies. "These are of your own manufacture."

The lights were flashed out again and another ghost appeared.

"I am Bob Anson, the artist who painted spirit pictures of Alex and Eddie Quist for you."

A smaller spook appeared.

"I am H. C. Steele, who did your dirty work and brought for you the anhydrous hydrocyanic acid poison."

Still another popped up.

"And I'm the druggist that sold you the poison."

The room was illuminated by amazing speed. At a signal from him all the officials revealed themselves and stood awaiting Scott's command. The inspector himself shifted from one foot to another, impatiently.

"Introducing Inspector O'Rourke of the New York department who wants to take Dr. Ottoman back East and electrocute him," orated Toadies.

Jubilee's Pardner

I do not know what we will get for Christmas. I would rather keep my nickel if I get one and buy myself a Christmas present. But that is what Christmas is for—to buy something that you would like to have for yourself and give it away to somebody that would probably rather have something else. When we got to school this morning Mush

When my mother saw that my grandfather was going to lose his game she made me hurry up and go to bed.

was out in the yard, and he got me by myself and asked me if I didn't think it was a nice thing for the kids where he used to work to buy little blooming serious a Christmas present. I told him I did, and that if he would have her hang up her stockings the day before Christmas we would sneak in and put something in it. He said she might catch cold going around with only one stocking, but he would give her the loan of one of his socks and maybe that would fix her up all right. He was certainly good to her. There are only two more days till slumgullion day. Mush said if we could each bring a potato it would make a lot better. And he said, "And if any of you have got a chicken, you are not using it. But I will not eat that. That would be too much. But chicken slum is mighty good." Hopper's folks have got chickens, and so have Red's. All of us whose folks have not got chickens said if their folks had them, which one would taste the best in a kittle of slum, but Red did not give us any encouragement. Then Younkers and Maggie came along and wanted us to go to the pond with them and slide. We did. But we were going to go anyhow. We would not go just because some girls asked us to. After supper my uncle and my grandfather played checkers, and when my mother said that my grandfather was going to lose the games he made me hurry up and go to bed. My grandfather does not like to lose.

Loki Brings Death to Balder

Balder was the son of Odin and Frigg. He was supposed to rule over the light of day.

The Northmen noticed the short days of winter, with the sun little tiny piece of mistletoe on the oak tree just outside heaven.

Loki had learned what he wanted. He went over to the oak tree. Then he cast a spell over the mis-

A scene at the banquet of the gods. It grew to be long enough for a spear.

Stripping off the leaves, the wicked fellow turned the shaft to the home of the gods. There everyone was having a good time. Balder was standing at the center, and the gods were throwing sticks and stones and spears at him. Nothing even touched him, because of the promise made to Frigg.

Loki saw Hoder, a blind god, but side the circle.

"Why aren't you taking part in this fun?" asked Loki.

"Because I have no spear," was the reply.

"Here is one," said Loki, handing him the mistletoe bough. "I'll show you how to throw it."

"All right," said Hoder. He hurled the spear and it struck Balder. The god fell wounded and in a moment died. His spirit went to the realm of the goddess Hel.

UNCLE WIGGILY AND BOBBY'S BALL

"Oh, where are you taking me?" cried the bunny.

Once upon a time there was a little raccoon boy named Bobby Rinstall. I have told you some stories about Bobby and about his sister Betty. They were named Rinstall because they had rings of fur on their tails. But I thought perhaps you might not remember Bobby, so that's why I told you, at the beginning of this story, that he was a raccoon.

Sometimes he was called "Uncle Wiggily," which is a short way of saying "raccoon."

Uncle Wiggily was hopping along through the forest, not far from his hollow stump bungalow, on a day when this story begins, and the rabbit gentleman met Bobby.

"Where are you going, Bobby?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I am taking my penny to the store," answered Bobby, who, being clad in warm fur, did not mind the snow and cold any more than Uncle Wiggily did in his fur coat.

"I suppose," said Uncle Wiggily, "that you are taking your penny to the store, Bobby, because the penny is too little to go to the store by itself. If it happened to be a five-cent piece I suppose it could go alone."

"Oh, of course it couldn't," Uncle Wiggily laughed. Bobby, the reason I am taking my penny to the store is because I am going to buy a ball for myself."

"A baseball?" asked the bunny.

"I should think it was too late to play baseball, or even football, with snow on the ground."

"I am going to buy a bouncing rubber ball," said Bobby. "And, if you like, you may come to the store with me."

"Thank you," said Uncle Wiggily. "But I am looking for an adventure. If I don't find one I may see you later."

"You may watch me bounce my rubber ball," Bobby offered.

"Thank you," said the bunny gentleman, as he hopped along to find an adventure. But adventures were scarce that day, and the only one Uncle Wiggily had was when he helped Uncle Bobby bounce his rubber ball.

"Aunt Lettie isn't feeling well," bleated Uncle Bobby, "and I thought some billiard poster would make her better."

"I hope it does," hopped Uncle Wiggily, as he hopped along while the goat gentleman took the bundle of poster paper to Aunt Lettie.

That was the only adventure Uncle Wiggily had and he was rather disappointed as he hopped on through the woods. But soon he saw Bobby Rinstall, the raccoon boy, bouncing his ball.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily," cried Bobby, as he saw the bunny gentleman. "Look how my ball bounces, doesn't it?" And really, the rubber ball with a little hole in it did so very high.

"That is a very fine ball—one of the best I have seen this year," spoke the bunny gentleman, as he watched Bobby.

"You may bounce it if you like," said Bobby.

"Thank you," answered Uncle Wiggily. He looked all around before he took the ball from Bobby.

"What were you looking for, the Fuzzy Fox?" asked the raccoon.

"No, I was looking for Nurse Jane," answered the bunny with a twinkle of his pink nose. "If she saw me bounce a ball like a child she would say I was silly. But she

Too Late

Just why—
We will not take advice—
When given us while we are young—
And full of ginger—
By those who are responsible—
For our existence—
Is something that I can't explain—
For long before it is the time—
For us to cut the apron strings—
Of doting mother—
And while we are a little damp—
Behind the ears—
We think we know far more than those—
Who seek to guide us—
Who caution us in quiet tones—
Of penalties that we must pay—
If we would break the laws of Mother Nature—
And so we go our wilful way—
Until there comes repenting day—
And day of doing penance—
I used to sit by coal-oil lamp—
Up in my bedroom every night—
And read how daring Diamond Dick—
Put forty robbers on the run—
And bore the handsome lady off in glory—
And just to see the story through—
I read at night till one or two—
Although my mother warned me—
But I was wise and laughed to scorn—
The same advice of mother—
But soon there came repenting day—
And I must pay for breaking laws of nature—
Now all my days with fulsome sighs—
I must go round with limping eyes—
My father had a head of hair—
That was as thick as on a bear—
And he told me just what to do—to save it—
I only laughed and went my way—
Now there comes repenting day—too late—
My hair is scattered here and there—
And what there's left is quickly counted—
And I repent—much too late—
We stuff our hides with hot mince pies—
We drink home brew and think we're wise—
Our M. D.'s give us warning—
But we just laugh aloud in scorn—
And wish the doc's were never born—
Until one day we take a flop—
The M. D.'s shoot us full of hop—too late—
We're "on the bum" forever—
While mother lived she showed the way—
That I must walk if on that day—
There would be no repenting—I paid small heed—
But sitting in the silence now—
I feel her soft hand on my brow—
She asks me if there's no relenting—
But mocking on my way I go—
Perhaps her way I'll seek to know—
Too late.

CLARICE PATTERNS

The Ever-Popular Jumper.

(No. 1577)

For school wear, especially during the cold weather, it is hard to find a style that renders more service and that always looks fresh and clean with a change of washable guimpes, than the smart little jumper frock.

The jumper shown exploits the new oval-shaped neckline and is made of serge, homespun, tweed or flannel with guimpe of a wash fabric like lawn or batiste. Figuring serge at 80c per yard for the dress and batiste at 35c per yard for the guimpe, the completed frock would cost about $1.75, and with what you save in making the dress, you could make another frock of a different style to give your girl a more extended school wardrobe.

The pattern No. 1577 cuts in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 8 requires 1 1/4 yards 32 or 36-inch material for dress and 1 yard 36-inch material for guimpe.

For Want of a Lift

TODAY'S SHORT STORY, BY Ad Schuster

SINCE that day years ago when she and her mother moved into the Grayson Apartments Cynthia had known Alex Dodd. He was elevator man then and now, with the advent of the automatic elevator, was assistant janitor. Alex was meek and his pockets were always filled with pamphlets calling attention to the distress of persons in remote parts of the world. He had a room in the basement and lived roughly that he might give more money away.

From the first the old man took a fatherly interest in the little girl who often wandered into the hall of the building while her mother went to the office or was shopping. It was not for Alex to say the child was neglected but, without saying it, he did his best to make her happy.

Alex was still elevator man when Roy West started calling on Cynthia, and after studying the young man on the short trips up and down from the fourth floor, he decided reluctantly that what was at heart a good girl as any youth could be. Cynthia told the old man she was happy and showed him a ring she did not dare put on until she was well out of sight of her mother. The old man, with great delight in this romance which was the only one that had ever come close enough to him for confidences.

The girl was 18 when her mother married Colonel Bruck, a querulous gentleman who shouted commands through a heavy and booming mustache and there was a sudden break in the story. The Colonel did not like the girl and did not profess that Cynthia should marry anyone so far beneath her. He did not hesitate to move into the apartment of his new wife, nor did he contribute anything to the support of the family. He felt, doubtless, his fame and the figure he cut in town should be enough for any woman. If he could marry Cynthia to a rich man he would be proving his worth as a step-father.

It was at this time the change was made in elevators and the apartment was introduced to the new invention which made every one in the house feel as if they were in a new world. Cynthia did not see so much of Alex, but she hunted him out one day to confide her big secret.

"Listen, Daddy Alex," the girl whispered in excitement. "I am going to elope! Tonight I am going to meet Roy outside and we are going to run off and get married. He will have the house and everything is fixed. I can only get away from that terrible Colonel."

Alex pulled on his scraggy beard. "Getting away from the Colonel," he agreed, "will be the hardest part. If he should chase you and catch you, there would be a terrible scene. If I can help any way without the risk of being shot or worse, you can count on me."

Alex hung around the hall that evening. A little after seven the elevator came down and emptied into the corridor a flushed and excited Cynthia. She waved at Alex and all but ran to the door and as she did so the elevator lifted in response to a signal from above. The girl glanced back frightened and slammed the door.

The janitor listened at the shaft. The car had stopped at the fourth floor. It would be the Colonel on the warpath and an end to the wedding plans!

And so it was. The Colonel had missed Cynthia at once. Seizing a cane and a large revolver, he dashed for the elevator, shouting imprecations while it rose slowly from below. Cynthia, outside, looked up and down the street and felt a great fear. Then, when she thought he would never come, Roy appeared. Gray carried a torch and made off. But not until the ceremony had been performed and they were on the train which was to take them away for two weeks in the South, did the girl breathe easy.

Tenants in the Grayson complained when they had to use the stairs and while Alex fussed around seeking to discover the trouble with the elevator. In an hour he would be driven away, leaving the matter, and greeted an explosive Colonel Bruck, who had been penned between the second and third floors. The Colonel shouted at the apologetic Alex and ran to the street. Later when he returned, resigned to defeat, the janitor was not to be seen.

In the basement Alex was smoking his pipe. "I hope she will be happy," he said, "and that I did the right thing by putting that torch to stop the Colonel."

My Marriage Problems

Cecile Garrison's New Phase Of Revelations of a Wife

THE REASON MADGE RACKED HER MEMORY.

"What's the matter with the car?" I struggled valiantly to make my voice as matter-of-fact as Dicky's had sounded. I saw that he had dismissed our recent tempestuous adventure as if it never had occurred, and I resolved to match his apparent nonchalance with equal poise.

"If I knew, I wouldn't have been doubling as a dachshund just now," he retorted, with a rueful glance at his natty suit, which showed the effects of his evening bonch his car. "The blamed thing simply died at first out there. Luckily it gave me a few dying gasps to warn me, and I was able to tell it in here out of the road. But don't know for the life of me what the trouble is—carburetor trouble, I suppose."

"Is there anything I can do?" I asked innocently enough, but Dicky's sour expression showed that my query had irritated him. However, there was no trace of his annoyance in his answer. Perhaps the remembrance of the last hour or two was more vivid than I had thought.

"Not a thing here," he said, then with a reluctant grin, he added, "But neither can I, so which would you rather do, go to the nearest telephone and summon a garage man, or stay here while I do it?"

"I think I'll stay here, if you don't mind," I answered with the swift reaction against driving which I might have expected to follow my quarrel with Dicky. It had left nothing settled as to my aiding Lillian, but I guessed that Dicky would be as willing to compromise his position on that as I secretly was, and therefore we could find a common meeting ground upon the proposition. So I gave myself up to the lure of the autumn woods stretching around me on every side, and revelled in the rich sensuous coloring of leaves and vines and mosses.

So absorbed mentally was I that for minutes of whose duration I had no measure I thought of nothing save the beauty around me. I was the problems which were troubling Lillian and my own personal affairs faded into a dim background. Then, as the heavy autumn air and the scents of the woods brought strength and healing to my overworked nerves, my brain began to function again, and I came back to the realization that I had come many times in the hours since my return—searching inquiry as to the possible identity of the mysterious foreigner who had annoyed me in the train with his assertion of knowing my father and me.

The bustle following my homecoming had been such that I had had no opportunity to go over the incidents of my journey and to try to fit the train together as one would the pieces of a picture puzzle. And yet I felt that the complete pattern was there if I could but find a missing piece or two which something told me my memory ought to supply.

It was maddening, this sense of something which I ought to know, but which was just beyond my grasp. I carefully went over every minute of my enforced association with the foreigner, trying to recall every detail of his appearance.

He had been unusually tall and well-built, his abundant hair was white, his mustache and imperials were dark, and though there was a disfigurement—were also white, his eyebrows—

With a sudden leap of my pulses I tried to recall his eyebrows, remembering the things Lillian had

Smith of the Asquith reservoir brought to her I had noticed that part of Smith's eyebrow had been puckled like that (if a man winks, and she had declared her belief that the man had done it to disguise a distinguishing mark of a tuffed eyebrow.

How I anatomized my lack of observation as I realized that I could recall nothing definite about the man's face! I had a vague impression that they were heavy and white, but with nothing unusual about them. Was it possible that—

The sound of horses' feet on the woodland road, into which Dicky had drawn his car startled me from my reverie. There were voices, too, one the crisp, authoritative accents of an American man of affairs, the other the apparently deferential, almost servile, voice of a laborer. But there was something in the accents of the second voice which brought me to my feet breathless—waiting.

"Take a walk, he sed, and I sed, Well G. pop, I jes came in, and he sed, Practices makes perfect, go on out agin."

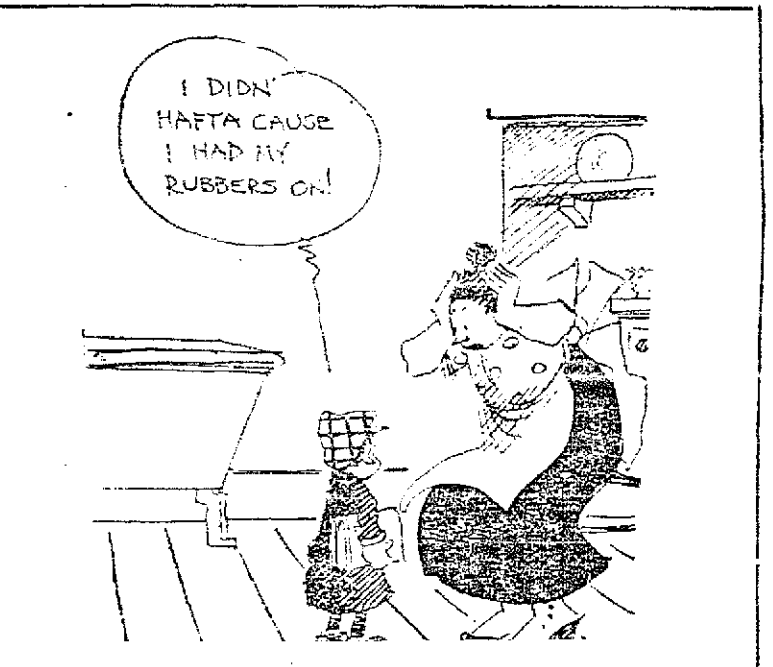

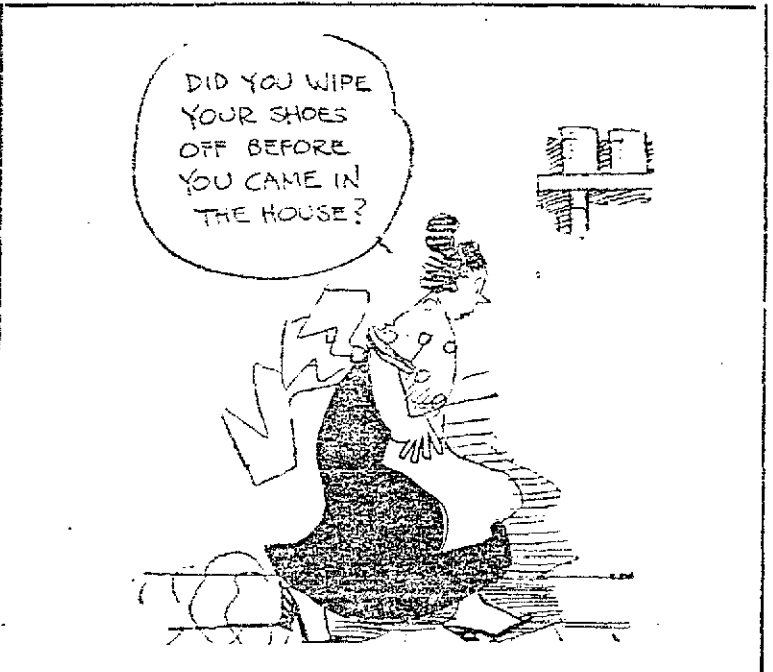

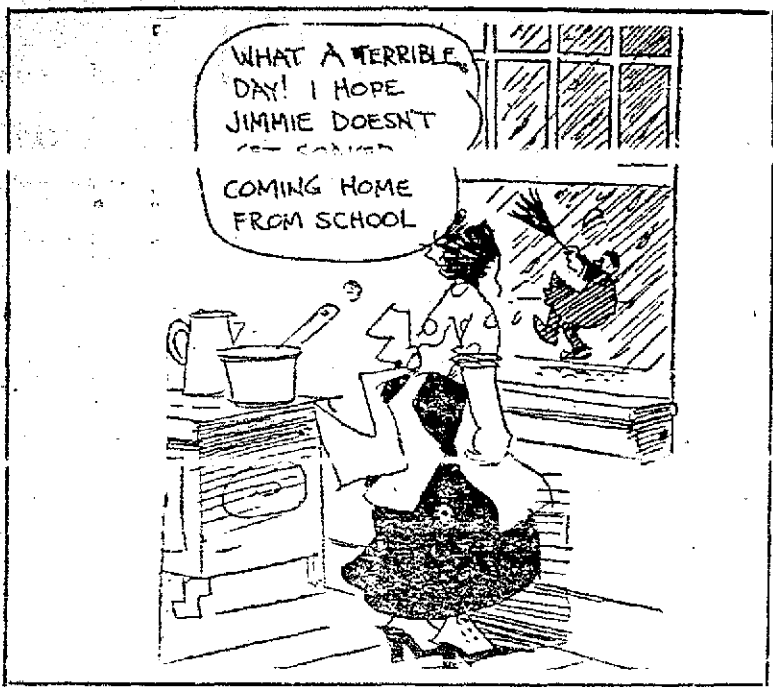

Which I did.

How To PUT A "KICK" IN IT

A tip for "wets" and "drys!"

We are all liable to feel "out of sorts" at times—need something with a "kick" in it to clear the brain, brighten the eye, put "pep" in the system.

Best way to do this is to take—with, or without, a "chaser"—that harmless yet thoroughly efficient family medicine, Beccham's Pills.

"Two for adults and one for children" is the phrase of health that has meant good digestion and a clear system to countless healthy, happy people the world over for the past 80 years.

Stop That Cough Without Dope!

Soothing Vapor Heals Raw, Inflamed Membranes

You can't cure a cough by taking medicine. The cough, the wheezing, the gasping, the choking, the trouble, either in the throat, chest, or lungs, and nothing you can swallow is going to get at the trouble. Coughs are usually caused by inflamed membranes in the throat, chest, or lungs. The safest and quickest way to counter a cough is to use a spoonful of "Deo" in a tin plate and fill your lungs and air passages with the soothing, healing vapor. Almost instantly it clears the head, relieves the tickling in the throat and begins to heal the inflammation. When going to bed, rub your neck and chest with "Deo" and cover with flannel.

"Deo" otherwise known as Demus Eucalyptus Ointment, is wonderfully effective for the relief of colds, catarrhs, croup, influenza, bronchitis and all respiratory troubles. Composed entirely of pure, antiseptic oils. Sold in 25c tins and 50c jars by good druggists everywhere. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Dealers: Deo Co. makers, Berkeley, Cal.—Advertisement.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles Conquered or Money Back

For 40 years, said Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing my Prescription No. 777 (known for years as Marshroot) for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have decided to give away this wonderful drug. Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffy eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or aching, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's famous Prescription No. 777 right away.

NOTE—Daniel G. Carey was a practicing physician for many years and his great Prescription No. 777 aided thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles and is the medicine you can always depend upon. Results are guaranteed.

JAIL PROPOSED FOR RECKLESS

Other Drastic Changes Will Be Urged At Session of Legislature.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 13.—Drastic changes in the motor vehicle laws are recommended in propositions which will be presented to the next legislature by the motor vehicle interests of the state. The propositions were approved at a meeting called by Charles Chann, head of the motor vehicle department today.

That reckless driving be placed in the same category as driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that punishment for the offense shall be imprisonment for six months or one year in the city jail or from one to five years in the penitentiary.

That children on roller skates be kept from the street.

That parking of automobiles on the highway be prohibited.

That "jay walking" on the highway be placed in the same category as "jay walking" in city streets.

LICENSE REGULATIONS.

That every person driving a motor vehicle be required to secure a license and that a thorough examination be given before licenses are issued.

That nobody under 18 be allowed to drive a motor vehicle.

That no person be allowed to extend over the running board on the left-hand side of an automobile.

That where there are no sidewalks pedestrians be compelled to walk on the left side of a road.

That in cases where a motor vehicle is towing another motor vehicle a white flag be placed in the center of the line between the two.

That all motorists should be compelled to stop when flagged at a train crossing.

The following are some of the other important amendments proposed and adopted:

Prohibiting the issuance of chauffeurs' licenses to anyone engaged in the operation of motor vehicles carrying passengers under 21 years of age.

Requiring the thumb prints and hair of every chauffeur and operator on every license.

Requiring every public garage to keep a record and description open to the police of every car brought in for storage, sale or repair.

Requiring the owner or lessee of any building to report to the police when any portion of the building is leased for storage of motor vehicles.

Prohibiting the use of sirens on any automobile except by police and fire departments and police officers in discharge of their duties.

DEALERS LICENSES.

Requiring every person engaged in selling or buying automobiles to secure a license.

Adopting an entirely new section regulating headlight equipment and incorporating specifications for testing headlights adopted by the Illuminating Engineers' Society in February, 1925.

Providing for the appointment of adjusting agencies to provide regulations by which motorists may have headlights adjusted and for the issuance of permits when such regulations have been complied with.

Additional regulations in the coupling of trailers to trailers; prohibiting more than one trailer and limiting the speed of any car drawing a trailer to 20 miles an hour.

Prohibiting use of so-called muffler cut-off on any highway.

Requiring the operator of an overtaken vehicle not to obstruct the car overtaking him and not to increase his speed when overtaken.

Restoring the old rule giving the right of way to vehicles approaching from the right.

Prohibiting the parking of automobiles on main traveled portions of any highway preventing free passage of other vehicles at the same time.

Prohibiting parking of automobiles in front of exits to private or public garages.

ROAD RACES PROHIBITED.

Prohibiting races or speed contests on highways.

Making an necessary to the theft of an automobile guilty of felony.

Requiring the owner to suspend chauffeurs' licenses for a period not to exceed six months.

Providing more severe penalties for persons operating cars after their license has been suspended or revoked.

Giving officers the right to stop cars and inspect them to the sufficiency of brakes.

Giving such officers the right to remove from the highways any

BLUE BIRD BUREAU OF THE TRIBUNE

The Blue Bird will be unable to attend to letters asking for aid which are received later than December 16. Letters received after that date will not receive consideration. The Blue Bird must have a week for closing up the work and making arrangements with Goodfellows. Closing date for Goodfellows is the last minute.

A broad and sympathetic smile is a large part of Christmas when it accompanies even a little gift to such as could not afford to buy it for themselves. Join in the smile corporation with the Blue Bird in giving a Christmas to poor (deserving) children. Remember it does not take much money to bring a smile to the face of a youngster.

who is expecting to be forgotten by Santa Claus. Goodfellow, your gift with its smile will win hearts and make voices ring with delight. Make provision for at least one more child than you thought you could take care of and reap the reward of a service well done in the personal satisfaction you will derive in having brought happiness where only sorrow held sway before.

Give expression to that desire to help, when there is no chance of being repaid with aught but love. Become a Goodfellow by sending the Blue Bird a Goodfellowship blank, telling how many you will play Santa Claus to, or contribute to the Blue Bird Fund to provide a bit of Christmas to those whom Goodfellows can not personally entertain or provide for.

In the homes for which you are asked to provide a Christmas, "not very rich" means that the things that make for bare comfort are lacking, that the things that give added enjoyment are not even thought of in these homes. "Being rich" would mean that there was three solid meals a day in the home and there was warmth in the house and good clothes to wear.

Here Goodfellows, two mothers in dire need plead your aid. They are out of work and deserted by their husbands some months ago.

"Dear Blue Bird—I am not working now because I am sick four weeks now. The boss said I lost my job. I look for something to do. I have two children, William is 7 years old and Dorothy is 1 year old. My husband went away. I didn't see him for nine months. I don't know where he is. I'm staying with my poor mother. Please send me some eat and bed clothes. Remember my children and don't forget to send eat."

"Dear Blue Bird—I hope you can help me out. I have one baby 7 months. My husband ran away. So I wish you if you please could send me something and if you know anybody can get me some clothes for myself and baby and for the one I am expecting."

"Dear Blue Bird—I have eight children in our family. Some of the children need shoes, dresses, coats, stockings, hats, ribbons and everything to wear. For winter and summer, things to wear. (They are boys aged 15, 8, 7 and 11 and girls aged 3, 9, 12 and 14.) They all want toys to play with, so bring some Santa Claus please."

"Goodfellows—I am an elderly lady, 73 years old, and have no relatives. I am all alone. Please Santa Claus just a Christmas dinner, woolen stockings and a sweater to help me keep warm."

GOODFELLOWS' BLANK

I will be Santa Claus to children. (As many as you wish). Please give me the names of children in (Name what section of the city you prefer to have assigned to you).

COUPLE ROBBED OF $10,000 BY AUTO BANDITS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—Four automobile bandits held up Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hill of Tulsa, Okla., also in a motor car, and robbed them of cash and jewelry aggregating nearly $10,000 in San Francisco last night, according to their report to the police.

The bandits maneuvered their machine so the Hill car was forced to the curb. Then they forced their victims to get out of the car and stand in a heavy rain while they took $1800 in currency from Mr. Hill and three diamond rings, valued at $2500 each from Mrs. Hill's fingers.

Oakland Press Club Secures Quarters

Quarters for the recently organized Press Club of Oakland have been leased in the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, T. A. Goldstein, vice president of the club, announced today. A suite of two rooms will be occupied until a larger suite is obtained, Goldstein said.

Business and professional men of Oakland and the Eastbay region have been asked by the membership committee to become associate members of the organization and already more than a hundred applications are on file with John R. Bruce, chairman of the committee.

Plans for the opening of the new club rooms January first are being made by the house committee, under the direction of T. J. Bailey, and an elaborate program is being arranged for that time.

CHILD SPECIALIST DEAD.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 13.—Dr. Miller Royal Whitnack, famous as a specialist on children's diseases and known to thousands as the "miracle man," died late yesterday at the Presbyterian hospital, where he had been confined for more than six weeks suffering from blood poisoning. Dr. Whitnack was born in Newark, 48 years ago.

Be sure to get real Resinol

If you want to get rid of eczema, pimples, or other distressing skin eruptions, you will accept no "substitute" for Resinol. Preparations similar in name or appearance are not "just the same as Resinol." Although a few unscrupulous dealers may offer you one or for Resinol, they are often crudely made, of little healing power, and some may even be dangerous to use. Buy in the original blue package.

WILSON LEAVES LAW, POLITICS

WILSON LEAVES LAW, POLITICS

Bainbridge Colby in Gotham Announces Termination of Partnership.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The law partnership of former President Wilson and Bainbridge Colby will terminate December 31, according to an announcement made here by the former Secretary of State. The only reason assigned for the firm's dissolution was the statement by ex-Secretary Colby that the former President "is turning his energies once more to subjects which have long invited him." He added: "Mr. Wilson's disciplined power and effectiveness as a lawyer have been a long revelation, considering the long interruption of his active work at the bar. He has taken a most active interest in the work of the firm and has shown the same effectiveness that he displayed in every field into which he turned his energies."

"Our relations are of the most cordial character imaginable, as they have always been."

NEWS NO SURPRISE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Bainbridge Colby's announcement of the termination of his law partnership with Woodrow Wilson is not a surprise to Washington and is regarded as an added evidence that the former President is again turning his attention to politics, particularly the fortunes of the Democratic party in 1924.

Various conjectures are advanced in political circles as to how prominent a part Wilson may take in the campaign of 1924. His intentions are undoubtedly known only to himself, although it is known that he is being urged to take a prominent part, and that his more favorable physical condition is being urged upon him as one reason why he should. The fact that Wilson has been doing a little better than holding his own physically, however, has led to exaggerated reports that he has been walking about the streets of Washington unassisted and that his disability has almost entirely disappeared.

Although it can be stated that the former president's physical condition is better now than it was the day he left the White House, it is still a question whether he is now able to devote the time he devotes to callers and letter-writing, and devote the greater part of his time to rest and recreation.

SUSPECT DENIES SLAYING

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Dec. 13.—Ben Brookshire, 23-year-old farm hand, who was lodged in the county jail here yesterday following discovery of the murders of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Shaffer, denied all knowledge of the crime early today. Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer were found on their farm near Middletown with their heads crushed.

BERKELEY FUND FOR CHRISTMAS NEEDING HELP

BERKELEY, Dec. 13.—POSTOFFICE BOX 150.—That's the way to reach Berkeley's municipal Santa Claus. He needs a fund of anonymous contributions to bring joy to the hearts of the poor and needy kiddies, many bedridden, some destined to be cripples for life.

Chairman—Jo S. Mills, of the municipal Christmas committee, announced today that the response to the appeal for funds had been good, but he explained that the goal of $2000 required to adequately care for all the needy was yet far distant.

Those desiring to help have been urged to make checks payable to the Berkeley Municipal Christmas Fund and mail to POSTOFFICE BOX 150.

DEAD SOUGHT IN EXPLOSION RUINS

CALAGUEY, Cuba, Dec. 13.—Search was continued today in the ruins of the Estrella sugar central, wrecked yesterday by a boiler explosion, for six bodies believed still to be hidden beneath the wreckage from which eleven dead and 50 injured were removed last night.

The death here of two of the injured has brought the toll of fatalities to nineteen, while some of the twenty-six seriously injured, brought from Céspedes, the little town in which the wrecked central is located, are expected to die.

Most of the victims are Spaniards.

The plant was valued at $4,000,000.

Woman Acts as Attorney and Wins

Acting as her own attorney in the justice court of Judge Harry Pulcifer, Ann Hilton today won a judgment of $75 from Mike Tokish for services rendered his wife when her baby was born. Tokish resisted payment on the ground that he had separated from his wife previous to the birth of the child. Judge Pulcifer held that the husband and father was liable for the debt just the same.

SUITOR HELD AS MURDER SUSPECT

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Kate Mitchell Trostell, 32-year-old widow who mysteriously disappeared on December 2, was murdered, the police declared today, although they could not find the body. They arrested Arthur Foster, 32, the young woman's suitor. His arrest was brought about by the finding of red stains on the running board of his touring car.

Mrs. Trostell, night manager of a Western Union branch office, was a sweetheart of Foster prior to her marriage to Trostell. After Trostell's death he renewed his attentions.

A button from the woman's skirt was found in the seat of Foster's car as was a pencil similar to the kind Mrs. Trostell carried.

In Foster's room was found a suit of clothes and an overcoat upon which there were stains.

Carita Chapter, O. E. S. Installs

ALAMEDA, Dec. 13.—Special music marked the installation ceremonies of Carita Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, last night in the Masonic Temple. The officers who will occupy chairs during the year are: Worthy matron, Mrs. Minnie I. Smith; worthy patron, John A. Sansome; associate matron, Mrs. Mae Nepecke; secretary, Mrs. Jeanne M. DeBerna; treasurer, Mrs. Theresa J. Strong; conductress, Mrs. Fannie E. Wise; chaplain, Kenneth C. Smith; marshal, Mrs. Pearl McCoy; organist, Miss Mildred Powell; warder, Mrs. Helen Lohman; sentinel, Albert E. Schierbeck; star points, Adah, Mrs. Madge W. Ormsby; Ruth, Mrs. Corinne Lambert; Esther, Mrs. Alice Deller; Martha, Mrs. Irene Baugh; Electa, Mrs. Vera K. Nelson.

Installing officers were: Past Matron Mrs. Pearl McCoy, Past Patron Judge Herbert D. Wise, Kenneth C. Smith, Mrs. Anna Brown, Mrs. Myrtle Noham and Mrs. Fannie E. Wise.

The musical program included vocal selections by Mrs. Mary Anderson Johnson, Miss Len Bloom, Mrs. C. W. Page, with Miss Mildred Powell as accompanist.

IS A GLAND OPERATION NECESSARY?

The benefits of the marvelous gland operations can now be obtained without submitting to the knife. By a new discovery, the life-giving gland substance can be supplied in tablet form. This treatment is highly recommended by European and American scientists, who have proved that the internal administration of gland extracts has a very marked effect upon the corresponding glands of the human body, often rebuilding them to normal activity.

Such a treatment is now offered to the public in the form of Glandogen, a highly concentrated glandular tonic prepared from the glands of healthy young animals and compounded with other valuable ingredients. Glandogen is surgery in tablet form and its use is equivalent to a gradual transplantation of healthy gland tissue. Glandogen is obtainable at the Oakland Pharmacy, 1000 Broadway, Corner Drug Store, Fruitvale and 14th st., and Federal Drug Co., Federal Bldg., in Oakland; and at Bell Pharmacy, Alameda; and Bold's Pharmacy, Berkeley. CHANSOR CASE

CLOSED INCIDENT,
SAYS PRESIDENT

Head of U. C. Refuses Comment On Editor's Expulsion; Students Divided.

BERKELEY, Dec. 13. — "The Roy Chansor case is a closed incident."

This was the comment today of President David P. Barrows of the University of California in discussing the expulsion from the state institution of Roy Chansor, senior student and editor of "Laughing Horse."

Dr. Barrows has formally affixed his signature to the findings of the student affairs committee of the university, headed by President Earl G. Steel of the student body. Unless Chansor himself at some future date makes a plea for a reopening of the case, there can be no reconsideration according to student leaders. This Chansor has declared he will not do.

Dr. Barrows refused to comment on a letter sent him yesterday by Chansor in which the latter charged that his expulsion was due entirely to an attack on the college head as named in "Laughing Horse" by Union Square and not because of alleged obscene contributions.

STUDENTS ARE DIVIDED. Students at the university are today divided over Chansor's dismissal. While student leaders commend the action taken, others declare the findings of the student affairs committee to be unjust.

Plans for a protest to be sent to Dr. Barrows were delayed today until next semester, owing to the fact that many students already have left for their homes and final "exes" are occupying the attention of the campus to the exclusion of practically everything else.

Jack J. Lyons, editor of the "reformed" Pelican, campus humorist monthly, who yesterday framed a protest petition, today announced that no action of this kind would be taken after the Christmas holidays.

Chansor is declared to have the support of a certain section of the faculty, a number of whom are known to have contributed to his magazine. These faculty members, while expressing private opinions on the case, refused to make public their sympathies because of their positions at the university. Answering statements made by Chansor that more obscenity was registered at the last smoker rally preceding the California-Stanford football game than in his current issue of "Laughing Horse," Earl Steel, as president of the student body, declared that college leaders had been warning on this "evil" also.

According to Steel, action of the student affairs committee was unanimous on the Chansor case. This is not the first time it is declared that a student has been ousted from college for editing objectionable publications. In 1910, it is declared, a "Pelican" editor was similarly treated. Then, however, is the first time since that date.

Members of the student affairs committee taking action against Chansor were: Boyles Steel, Brock P. McAllister, H. W. Kennedy, C. C. Mathews, L. J. O'Brien and Ira C. Hilgers. Charges against Chansor were preferred before the student affairs committee by Jack C. Butler, the student causing the editor's arrest, and another student leader.

"THE MODEL" IS GIRL'S WORK

MISS BARBARA CRONK, youthful Alameda art student who executed "The Model," a clever bit of clay work for the studio scene in the Alameda Elks' play.

CLAY MODEL BY
ALAMEDA SCHOOL
GIRL IS PRAISED

ALAMEDA, Dec. 13.—Unusual interest is being shown by art critics of the bay region in "The Model," an original bit of clay modeling which Miss Barbara Cronk, senior in the Alameda High School art class executed for the benefit play which the Alameda Lodge of Elks is giving in the Palace theater this week.

The statue, which is four feet high, depicts the careless grace of a young girl, whose slim figure is delicately poised and whose shapely head is half hidden in one exquisitely curved arm.

The work of Miss Cronk promises well for her future, according to Miss Emily Sherman, art instructor in the Alameda High school. The young girl, she points out, displays a marked aptitude for creative work, as most of her subjects, including "The Model," are original and done without any subjects.

This is the first course in clay modeling the young artist has taken, and this, according to Miss Sherman, makes her achievement unusual.

Present plans of the young art student include further instruction in art studies in the Arts and Crafts school in Berkeley and a finishing course in an eastern institution.

FIGHTS MOVE TO

Achievements of Year Reviewed in Report By Managing Director.

BERKELEY, Dec. 13.—Urging the defeat of the referendum instituted against the Berkeley waterfront lease and calling upon voters to support a special tax proposal for a civic center as a memorial to war heroes of the college city, Managing Director Charles Keeler of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce today presented his first annual report to the board of directors of the civic organization.

Keeler reviewed at length the accomplishments of the chamber during the past year, including extensive advertising given the city through publicity sent throughout the country. To meet many questions asked and information desired, a series of surveys have been made, according to Keeler, dealing with industrial conditions, charitable endeavors, and health statistics, with a tourist and business survey now in course of preparation.

CO-OPERATION CITED. The aid of the chamber in bringing about civic improvements and in co-operation with university officials in seeking about improved conditions both for the city and the university also is related.

As the one big objective of the chamber's city planning committee, Keeler points out, is the proposed special tax to cover a period of three years to provide funds for the acquisition of a block of land fronting the city hall to be converted into a civic center as a memorial for hero dead of the college city.

POPULATION GAINS. That the Berkeley population is increasing at the rate of 5,000 persons a year, on report of the East Bay Water Company in making new connections and on school statistics, is Keeler's statement in discussing housing problems and urging an improvement in architectural designs in buildings.

Keeler's report shows the Berkeley chamber to be in excellent financial condition. Of a budget allowance of $21,400 for the year, he points out that only $18,377.02 has been expended; that the office has in the past year acquired $1,073.95 worth of permanent office furniture, and that there are $1,410.55 in dues receivable after allowing for the resignation of nearly 100 members.

ORPHANS HOPE FOR PARENTS IN PACK OF SANTA

Does anyone wish to bestow a father and mother for a Christmas gift upon a little child?

Small boys and girls in the Children's Home Society, 2491 Sixty-sixth avenue, are eagerly awaiting the coming of Santa Claus with, perhaps, some parents for these in high pack.

To be a little child alone at Christmas time brings no joy. The child needs parents and a home. These youngsters, who have been abandoned by their own families, or who are orphans, have learned this fact, although cared for by kindly strangers.

The Children's Home Society is offering to childless homes a choice collection of lively boys and girls and healthy babes. Information may be obtained from the Sixty-sixth avenue institution.

Sea Captain Wants Payment For Necklace, But Court Rules Against Him.

De Maupassant, Dumas and many other famous writers of the past and present were around strings of pearls all sorts of complex situations and emotions. Truth rivaled fiction in a suit involving a string of pearls which has just been decided by Judge Harry W. Pulcifer in the justice court.

Captain Henry Bernhardt, who has sailed the Pacific for many years and resides at 500 Fourth street, brought suit against Mrs. May Moorehead, his step-daughter, and J. M. Moorehead, her husband, for $299.99, alleged due him for a string of pearls which he had picked up in the Philippine Islands several years ago. Mrs. Moorehead, 518 Forty-second street, claimed Captain Bernhardt had made her a present of the pearls on her twentieth wedding anniversary, and produced a small piece of paper bearing words to this effect, which she said were in Captain Bernhardt's handwriting.

Supporting this evidence was testimony that Captain Bernhardt, after securing the pearls in the Philippines, had sent them to his wife, Mrs. Mathilda Bernhardt, in San Francisco, but that she had moved to San Diego and they remained in the San Francisco custom house waiting for the payment of $40 as duty. When he returned home from the voyage, Captain Bernhardt paid the duty and took the pearls with him to San Diego, where the gift was made, it was claimed.

Judge Pulcifer decided the preponderance of evidence showed the pearls to be a gift and gave judgment to the defendants.

TRIUMPH CONTEST

ON AMERICANISM TO CLOSE FRIDAY

Best Definitions By School Children Will Win Cash Prizes.

Any one who goes to one after another of the forty-eight states of the Union, finds great differences between the inhabitants of the various sections of the country. Customs are different, the speech is different, the viewpoints of the people concerning national questions are different. Yet underneath these differences is a similarity so great that no one can have any doubt that these people all belong to the same nation. The similarity that links together all those 110,000,000 people scattered over forty-eight states, is what is called Americanism. So now—what is Americanism?

Three cash prizes of $50, $30 and $20 will be paid by The TRIBUNE to the school children of the East-bay district who send in the three best definitions of this expression. In order to be eligible in this contest, a definition submitted must not exceed 50 words in length, and it must be mailed to The TRIBUNE before midnight of Friday of

Xaverians to Hold

BERKELEY, Dec. 13. — The Xaverians will hold their last dance of the year at St. Joseph's hall, Addison and Jefferson streets, Berkeley, tomorrow evening. The hall will be decorated with holiday greens. Miss Rose Crowley is chairman of the reception committee. She will be assisted by the Misses Ellen Dougherty, Edna Morton, Emma Quillman, Alice Hecker, Alice Grant and Anne Freeman. Frank Javet, Bert Fratus, Joe Devany, Maurice Kane and Charles Skinner. Andrew Gawley is in charge of the arrangements, assisted by Josephine Miller, Margaret Gelder, Patricia Giblin, Jim McGee, Joe Orland, Norman Artzen, Ray Burke, Pat Freeman, Stan Span and Louis Ravizza.

This week—December 15. All definitions submitted in the contest should be addressed to "The Americanization Editor, Oakland TRIBUNE."

The judges who will select the three winning definitions are the following: Commander Earl E. Brown of Oakland Chapter No. 7, Disabled American Veterans of the World War; Past Adjutant Stanley S. Wood of Oakland Post No. 5, American Legion, chairman of the post's Americanization committee; Superintendent Fred M. Hunter of the Oakland School Department; and the Americanization Editor of The TRIBUNE.

Those eligible to compete in the contest are boys and girls actually in attendance at the public schools of the Eastbay.

Books on Farming

J. H. MacLafferty, congressman from the Sixth district of California, has received an allotment of agricultural year books for distribution in Alameda county, according to a letter received by him today. MacLafferty requests that anyone desiring these books which contain information particularly valuable to those living in rural districts, communicate with him at Room 478, House Office Building, Washington, D. NOTE—Oakland's growth has averaged 27% each ten year period since 1850 up to 1920, and the two years 1921 and 1922 alone have shown a still greater increase. This means that if the present rate is maintained the city's population will be 470,437 in 1930 and nearly a round million in 1950.

Investment

Dedicated to the man who demands a sound investment

Look at your map of Oakland. Observe that the level land between the mountains and the bay from Albany to San Leandro is almost solidly built up. In this area there are just so many square miles for use either as factory or homesites.

Back of this level land is a chain of mountains, only a portion of which can be used for homesite purposes. These mountains are a veritable Chinese Wall.

The very choicest homesites are in the highlands overlooking the city. This is always the case in every city where such choice view homesites are available. What, then, will occur in the years to come when all this choice upland property is built up to fine homes?

Look at the graphic above—consider the rapid growth of Oakland. In 1930 or 1935 is it not reasonable to assume that the choicest homesites (and that may be bought) will bring far in advance of a value that would naturally accrue to them by reason of increase of population? If you keep that Chinese Wall in mind you will agree to this. The answer is to select your Montclair homesite now.
